

COXEY AND BROWNE
BEHIND THE BARS.COMMONWEALERS CHARGED
BY WASHINGTON POLICE.

No Measure in Dealing With the Procession of Unemployed at the Capitol—General Randall Leaves Chicago With 450 Men, Escorted By Police.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Coxey's army marched to the capitol today—a ragged, seedy, dragged lot. Very different the broken file of four hundred tramps looked from the fifty thousand the Massillon leader had promised. Very different the reception from what the Ohio horse-trader had pic-

cerning meetings and processions in the capitol grounds, and in reply to his objections that the law was unconstitutional they told him that they were here to execute the law and not to construe it.

Chief of Police O'Mara of Pittsburg is in consultation with Major Moore. A score of out-of-town detectives from principal cities are in Washington.

Twenty mounted policemen patrol the country in which the Coxey camp is located. They are in command of a sergeant, and will take into custody any one violating any regulations of the district.

RANDALL ARMY LEAVES CHICAGO

Police Escort the Band of 450 Through the City.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Randall's army 450 strong left their barracks this morning to march to Washington. They came escorted through the city

COAL MEN AND REND
DON'T GO TOGETHER

OPERATORS REPUDIATE OFFERS FOR A COMPROMISE.

Indiana and Illinois Coal Men Will Have Nothing to Do With an Interstate Agreement Regulating Prices—Toluca Mines Shut Down Tight—Trouble Feared in Ashland

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1.—The manifesto of Col. W. P. Rend, the Chicago coal operator, for a settlement of the miners' strike was issued to the other operators last night. They would not agree to a conference. They seem determined to win the fight. Operators in Indiana and Illinois declared they would have nothing to do with an interstate agreement fixing the price of labor.

The coal supply through Pennsylvania is growing smaller. The Sligo bar iron mill has closed down on account of no fuel. The coal supply in any of the mills can not last over two weeks, and gas is too scarce to allow its general use. On the Alleghany Valley railway old railroad ties are being cut up into billets to allow their being burned in the locomotives.

The strikers at Washington Run had a fight with the deputy sheriffs last night. One of them was badly used up. When he got back to the strikers' camp and reported what happened his companions started with sticks of dynamite for the building where the deputies are lodged. They intended to wreck it with the dynamite, but the leaders succeeded in getting the explosives away from them.

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 1.—General Manager Ferris of the Ohio Central has issued an order to cut the pay of all salaried men 33 1/2 per cent, beginning May 1. Mr. Ferris says it is a temporary reduction, rendered necessary by the coal strike, as half the road's business is coal traffic. It is understood a cut will soon be made on the Hocking Valley.

John McBride Has His Say.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—John McBride, yesterday, after reading the statement of Col. Rend's son to the effect that if the coal operators did not soon agree among themselves and send their men to work he would start up his mines, said: "Before Col. Rend can set his men to work at the advance in wages which is asked he must first secure the consent of the men. There are hundreds of operators ready and willing to begin work and to pay the price for mining which is asked by the miners' association if the men were willing to return to work. What they desire is fair treatment of the miners and fair treatment by all operators toward each other."

TOLUCA MINES CLOSED TIGHT.

Fear They Will Not Be Protected Said to Have Scared Workmen.

TOLUCA, Ill., May 1.—Toluca mines closed last evening. The miners held a meeting Saturday evening and decided to go to work, but Sunday they held another and decided to quit until all the mines resume. The colored miners have joined interests with the white miners. The mines of all Northern Illinois are now closed except two, one at Streator and one at La Salle, the Mattheisson & Higler Zinc company. The miners at Spring Valley voted to permit no company mines to work at all.

PANA, Ill., May 1.—Great apprehension is felt here on account of the report that the miners from the Springfield district are on their way to Pana to force out the miners at work there. Trouble is feared, for there is great opposition to the strike at this place.

ROCKFORD, Ill., May 1.—Many manufacturing concerns here will be compelled to shut down unless the exhausted supply of soft coal is speedily replenished by the strikers going to work.

LINCOLN, Ill., May 1.—The 200 miners in this city have quit work and will await the result of the general strike before resuming.

CENTRALIA, Ill., May 1.—The 400 miners employed in the two mines here will come out and join in the strike. Sandoval miners have voted against going out.

CARLYLE, Ill., May 1.—Five hundred miners struck between here and East St. Louis yesterday.

UNDER UNCLE SAM'S PROTECTION.

Wisconsin Central Will Put Upper Dockmen at Work.

ASHLAND, Wis., May 1.—The Wisconsin Central proposes to take a hand in the fight against the striking upper dockmen. It is proposed to commence on the dock to-day with men who will work for $1.35 days and $1.45 nights. The Wisconsin Central has Uncle Sam at its back and has published a manifesto stating the fact. United States Marshal Main says he will have twenty deputy marshals with him at the dock.

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 1.—The Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic has agreed to contract to trim vessels at 2 1/2 cents a ton and leave the employment of men and the choice of foremen to the executive committee. This ends the strike.

OMAHA, Neb., May 1.—The three carpenters' and joiners' unions of Omaha have decided to ask May 1 that eight hours shall constitute a day's work. This is now a nine hour city. President Gascoigne says thirty days the union will demand 30 cents an hour.

GREEK EARTHQUAKE
TAKES 500 LIVES.

ANOTHER SHOCK SPREADS AWFUL DESOLATION.

Towns in Ruins and Hosts of People Dead—The Disaster a Repetition of That One Week Ago—Accident Costs Many Lives in Brahamov, Roumania.

ATHENS, May 1.—Another earthquake shook Greece this morning. From every hand reports are coming in of villages destroyed and cities in ruins. The disaster was preceded by tremblings of the earth that gave enough warning so many were prepared and fled to the open country, but the list of the dead will reach fully five hundred.

BRAHMOV, Roumania, May 1.—A terrible accident occurred here yesterday. While the pier was crowded with people in holiday attire, bound for Galitz, on the Danube, waiting for the steamer which was to convey them to that place, the pier gave way and threw about one hundred and twenty people into the water. Many of the excursionists are believed to have been drowned.

HOT DEBATE IN THE SENATE

Bitter Animosity Aroused in the Discussion of the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Senator Harris, who is in charge of the tariff bill, lost patience yesterday at the way in which progress was impeded by Senator Hale in the morning hour. As on several preceding days Mr. Hale objected to giving way for special measures in the morning hour. Finally Mr. Harris abruptly moved that the senator proceed with the consideration of the tariff bill. This at once caused a sharp discussion as to the manner in which the bill was to be debated and when the amendments were to be introduced. It lasted until Mr. Allen (pop, Neb.) threw "senatorial courtesy" to the winds and demanded the regular order. The tariff bill was then laid before the senate.

Mr. Aldrich renewed his comments on the Carlisle interview. In reply to a remark by Mr. Vest that Mr. Aldrich had been falsely informed concerning the proposed amendments to the tariff and if these statements were repeated it must be on his own responsibility. Mr. Aldrich accepted the challenge, with the statement on his lips that he was "informed and believed that amendments had been prepared to the bill since it had been reported to the senate, as he had previously stated." He asserted that amendments were in print and said it was his understanding that they were to be submitted to the senate shortly.

Mr. Mills (dem., Tex.) followed in a brief, sharp speech, in which he denied that the bill had been improperly prepared and reported.

Mr. Palmer remarked that it was not necessary or expected that a bill should be perfected in committee; as for himself he had not given a power of attorney to any one.

Senator Voorhees replied to the speech made by Senator Sherman last Saturday, and quoted a long paragraph from the Ohio senator's speech, in which he said that the finance committee had not had opportunity to consider the pending tariff bill in the usual way. He took especial exception to a sentence in Mr. Sherman's speech, reading, "this bill has never been considered by the finance committee." He asserted the tariff bill had been reported to the full finance committee March 8 and had not been reported by the committee to the senate until March 20.

Senator Sherman, in reply, said the bill was never read in detail to permit changes. If it had been and votes had been taken a more satisfactory measure might have been presented. Mr. Sherman repeated that there was no opportunity for consideration until the democratic majority had agreed upon changes.

After Mr. Harris Mr. Voorhees insisted that the record showed the bill had been considered in every detail from end to end and that the minority had ample opportunity to offer amendments. He called particular attention to Mr. Aldrich's motion made in committee to strike out the income tax feature. "I desire to say right here," said he, commenting on this motion, "no matter what rumors may be floating in the air, that the income tax will stay in this bill."

A few minutes afterward an incident occurred which created a profound sensation. Senator Turpie of Indiana, in a most bitter and scathing speech, denounced Senator Aldrich for his attack on the action of the committee. The speech certainly strained senatorial courtesy to the utmost limit, and created intense excitement in the chamber. Mr. Aldrich answered quietly and briefly, and the incident closed without another word. Mr. Quay resuming the prepared speech he began some weeks ago. A motion to go into executive session developed the absence of a quorum and at 5:50 the senate adjourned.

Extension Letter Carriers.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Congressman Goldzieher has introduced a bill in congress to provide for the relief of aged and disabled letter carriers by the establishment of a letter carrier's relief fund, which fund shall be composed of assessments levied upon the regular salary of all letter carriers engaged in the service. He proposes to withhold a sum equal to 1 per cent per annum of the amount of each letter carrier's salary to be devoted to this purpose. He provides that the fund so raised shall be applied to the relief of any carrier who, in the line of duty, shall be permanently injured or disabled, mentally or physically (if such disability is not the result of his own vicious habits), so as to incapacitate him for the performance of further duty in the service. If an employee of the first class in the mail service receives a permanent injury he is to receive $500 per annum; if of the second class $400; and if of the third class $300 per annum.

WANT TIME EXTENDED.

Chinese of San Francisco Concerned About the Registration Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 1.—The Chinese six companies held a big meeting here last night and again petitioned their minister at Washington to memorialize congress for a further extension of time for registration under the McCreary act. Unless their prayer is granted the registration books will close on Thursday next. The Chinese call attention to the fact that every incoming steamer brings many Chinese, whose sole purpose in returning is to register, and that on the steamer Oceanic, which arrived here Saturday, there over 500 Chinese who want to register, many of whom will not be permitted by the custom officers to come ashore before that time has expired.

Officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children have arrested Ching Say, a Clay street merchant, for damaging his daughter's feet to keep them from growing. The officers intend to make a test case, and, if successful, to prosecute other Chinese offenders.

BOMBS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Many Buildings Violently Shaken Up by an Explosion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 1.—An attempt was made with dynamite to wreck a restaurant on Mission street, near Twenty-eighth. Not much damage was done, however, though the report could be heard nearly a mile and buildings in the immediate vicinity were violently shaken. The restaurant is kept by two Slavonians, and it is believed by the police that the explosion was planned by a Slav, to whom they sold another restaurant, some time since.

Star Rubber Mortgage Is Valid.

TRENTON, N. J., May 1.—Vice-Chancellor Bird has rendered a decision in the famous Star Rubber company litigation, sustaining as valid mortgages for nearly $400,000, made by the directors of the company in favor of themselves and three Trenton banks, and recorded at midnight in January, 1891, to secure indorsements and cash advancements, three days before the concern went into the hands of a receiver.

Trying to Settle the Strike.

ST. PAUL, May 1.—"We expect to win this fight within forty-eight hours," was the way President Debs stated his views yesterday. He said he made the statement on the authority of the general manager of another road, who told him that Mr. Hill would grant the demanded advance to all remaining classes of employees within that time. Passenger trains were sent out as usual here, except that the Breckinridge train was held one hour to take on 100 deputies for that point. Everything is quiet in the yards here. A conference is now in session in Minneapolis between Mr. Debs and representatives of the commercial bodies of the two cities looking to settlement by arbitration.

Ready for Annual A. P. A. Meeting.

DES MOINES Iowa, May 1.—The supreme officers of the A. P. A. in the world, have arrived in Des Moines for the meeting to-morrow. Among the most important actions that will be taken by the council at its session in Des Moines will be the promulgation of a platform for declarations with reference to the indiscriminate foreign immigration.

Senator Stockbridge Dead.

CHICAGO, May 1.—United States Senator Francis B. Stockbridge of Michigan died at 7 o'clock last evening at the home of his nephew in this city. The end came unexpectedly. Although he had been ill for several weeks his condition was not thought critical and his death came as an unusually severe blow to his wife and friends.

Hoosier Elections To-Day.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—Elections will be held in all incorporated cities in Indiana to-day. The campaigns have been the most enthusiastic of any spring elections held in this state in years.

FROM A MOB'S ROPE
DANGLED WILSON.

MURDERER OF AN IOWA POLICEMAN LYNCHED.

Missouri Valley People Take From Jail the Burglar Who Killed Their City Marshal and String Him Up—Very Little Resistance Offered By the Sheriff.

MISSOURI VALLEY, Iowa, May 1.—Wilson, the burglar, who shot the city marshal here Saturday, was lynched early this morning. The mob seemed to have no particular organization but accomplished its purpose easily through its determination not to be balked. Officers were powerless, although not disposed to endanger any lives in defending the prisoner.

Crooked Juror Is Sent to Jail.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—Juror Alvis Armstrong, who offered to hang the jury in the bank cases for $5,000, was tried for contempt of court and sentenced by Judge Baker to eighteen months without labor in the penitentiary at Michigan City. Frank Starnard, the go-between, who, with Armstrong, was also under $4,000 bonds for a conspiracy to corrupt the Federal jury, was held to the grand jury and admitted on bail.

Threatens to Kill Breckinridge.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 1.—A communication postmarked New York has been received by the postmaster at Paris, Ky., asking him to warn the authorities that if Col. Breckinridge is allowed to speak there he will be shot down and the building blown up with dynamite. The letter writer says he is a Kentuckian.

TORE UP THE TRACKS.

Chicago Gets the Best of the Lake Shore Railroad Company.

CHICAGO, May 1.—The bitter contest between the city and the Lake Shore railroad came to a violent climax in the drawing of spikes, the displacement of rails and ties and the throwing of dirt by a band of 200 laborers employed by the city and protected by nearly one hundred policemen from Hyde Park and Englewood.

If the railway company should resort to violent measures it will meet with a hot reception, as the police have their war paint on and are under command of Inspector Hunt and Captain Aldrich. Every move on the part of the city has been personally directed by Mayor Hopkins, who declares that he is in the fight to stay and that the railroad will pay dearly for the violated faith with the city officers.

HATTIE BLAINE WEDS.

Becomes Mrs. Truxton Beale at Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Very quietly and in the presence of their intimate personal friends, Truxton Beale, ex-minister to Persia, and Harriet Blaine, daughter of the late Secretary Blaine, were married at the Blaine family residence on Lafayette square at 1 o'clock yesterday. The Rev. Dr. Hamlin, pastor of the Presbyterian church of the Covenant, performed the ceremony. Edward Woolston of New York was the best man and there were no bridesmaids. There was an entire absence of show or ceremony about the wedding.

Ball's Body Found in the Woods.

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., May 1.—The body of Peter Ball, who disappeared from Plymouth seven weeks ago, has been found in the woods near Wausau by an Indian. He left his name written on a log, and besides giving business instructions to his wife in a letter stated that his death was caused by sickness and starvation.

A Battle With Icebergs.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 1.—After a twenty-one days' storm of unusual severity the Allan line steamship Corean, in charge of Capt. Main, arrived at this port bearing marks of a long battle with icebergs and ice floes, from which the iron vessel barely escaped.

Paris Forbids Parades.

PARIS, May 1.—The police authorities express confidence that there will be no disorder in the city May day-to-day. They have announced that lectures, banquets, and the like will not be interfered with, but that mass-meetings and processions will not be permitted.

Forming Coxey Army Home Reserve.

DENVER, Colo., May 1.—Ten thousand men are said to be already enrolled in the Coxey army home reserve in Colorado. The force in Denver numbers 1,200. Gov. Waite cordially indorses the movement.

Painters on Strike.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Twenty-five hundred painters, or half the entire number belonging to the Painters' union in this city, struck work yesterday. This step was taken as a result of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators of America held Sunday.

Clashing Ramsay's Allibi.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, May 1.—There was a continuation of testimony tending to establish an alibi in the Ramsay case yesterday. Witness Bentley was recalled and said that Witness Smith represented Ramsay as advising the strikers to do nothing that would get them into trouble.

ON TO WASHINGTON—J. S. COXEY, of Massillon, O.

tured to his troops. Coxey and Browne dismounted at the foot of the capitol steps and started up on foot. There was an interruption by the police. The blue coats charged, scattered the army and arrested Coxey and Browne. Both men were locked up, there being no serious trouble. The action of the police was not taken without warning. Coxey knew the programme last night. "I shall certainly make an attempt to speak, as I have promised," remarked Coxey, "and should the police disband the army as threatened a rise will be resorted to. Instructions have been given the men to separate if ordered to do so by the police and go one by one or by twos and threes to the appointed spot near the steps of the east front of the capitol building. There I propose to make my address. After the meeting shall be adjourned we will go to our new rendezvous at the south of the capitol, where arrangements have been perfected for pitching camp."

Much of the curiosity concerning Coxey has died out. Although the army has been on exhibition all day the attendance has been smaller than it was at Cumberland. Things have been quiet all day in the camp at Brightwood. After their demonstra-

by police and will stop at Grand Crossing, just inside the limits tonight.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 30.—The Galvin army arrived here today in extremely good spirits.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—The Galvin army, numbering 200 men, headed by the Nineteenth Regiment band and cheered on all sides by thousands of people who had been attracted by the display, at 8 o'clock last night marched from Trades Assembly hall to the Union depot, where they took a passenger train for Benwood, W. Va. The money for their transportation, amounting to $280, was raised by public subscription. About thirty new recruits, mostly Columbus men, and more than half of them trades-unionists, joined the army and will go with it to Washington. The donations of food were sufficient to enable the men to cook their dinners.

GEN. FRY SCENTS TROUBLE.

He Fears Uncle Sam's Soldiers May Try to Scatter the Armies.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—It is possible that within a few days the industrial movement throughout the United States will be proclaimed by Secretary of War Lamont as treason-

tion to-day the commonweal soldiers will march to a vacant lot at Second and M streets, southwest, where they will pitch their tents, and the leaders announce that this will be the permanent camp of the army of peace until the good roads bills are passed by congress.

Answering the question, "You will attempt the capitol meeting in the face of official objection?" Coxey said: "Yes, and regardless of the law, mind only our constitutional rights." Asked as to whether he had received any encouragement from congress about the passage of his bills he replied: "I have not. Congress will not act until forced to."

Sergeant-at-arms of the Senate and Snow of the house were closeted with Coxey a quarter of an hour. These officials pointed

able and the different divisions be ordered to disband. Should the commanders of the various branches refuse to comply it is believed instructions will be sent to the United States army officers commanding the different departments to send out United States troops and arrest the leaders with their lieutenants and break up the camp. That such is the policy of the war department Gen. Fry of the Los Angeles army, in camp here, has little doubt. He believes that President Cleveland has determined to break up the Coxey armies before enough get to Washington to make trouble. The information came in the shape of an official communication from Major-General O. O. Howard, commanding the department of the east, desiring to be informed of the object of the march.

STRAPS AROUND LOCAL MAIL

String Costs the Government Too Much Money in the Long Run.

The post office department has put another economical scheme in practice in this city. When leaving the office the carriers have the mail for each street tied up in a package. Heretofore they have used string to tie up these packages, throwing the string away when the package was untied. Barrels of string were thus consumed in a short time, and the government finds it quite an expense. The new idea is the substitution of leather straps for strings. These straps are not unlike an ordinary shawl strap, having a small buckle at one end. They are furnished each carrier and he is held responsible for their keeping. The straps are buckled around the packages, and when removed are fastened to the carrier's pouch, and are thus preserved an indefinite time.

"The government expects to save considerable money in this new move," said one of the local carriers. "I think it is a good move, the straps appear to be much handier than the string."

T. B. LEAHEY IN THE POSTOFFICE
He Succeeds Miss Mellie Bowles as Registry and Delivery Clerk.

Thomas B. Leahey to-day succeeded Miss Mellie G. Bowles as registry and delivery clerk in the Janesville post-office, this being the first change in the clerical force since Postmaster Wilson took charge of the office. Mr. Leahey is well qualified for the position to which he has been appointed. For many years he was employed in the freight office of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, and is an expert accountant.

MAGAZINES OF THE MONTH.

Demorest's
There are many attractive features in the May number of Demorest's magazine. Gen. Lew Wallace, Gen. James Grant Wilson, George W. Cable, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Prof. H. H. Boyeson, and Gertrude Atherton give "Advice to Young Writers," every word of which, coming from such sources, is as valuable as gold, and the portrait of each is given with the advice. The paper on "Russian Home Industries" is superbly illustrated and eminently interesting. "The Transformation of the Ugly Club" is a unique article on modern facial surgery.

North American Review.
The North American Review for May opens with two timely articles on "The Way to Regulate Liquor Selling." The first by Governor Tillman, of South Carolina, is in the nature of a defence of his conduct during the recent liquor riots in that state, and is entitled "Our Whisky Rebellion." The second, which deals with "Successful Public-House Reform," is by the Right Rev. Francis John Jane, Bishop of Chester, who is well known in England as one of the leading advocates of the Gothenburg system.

Harper's Magazine.
"Eighty years young," said Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes when asked his age on a now famous birthday. For forty-four years Harper's New Monthly Magazine has kept abreast of the best art and the latest knowledge. It is new every month. Besides its articles on general topics, the May number contains six complete short stories, a generous installment of Mr. DuMaurier's novel, "Trilby," half a long story by James Lane Allen, and more pictures than the average illustrated book.

Scribner's.
Scribner's Magazine for May opens with an article of unusual importance, entitled "Some Episodes of Mountaineering," by Edwin Lord Weeks, describing some of his own stirring adventures, while mountain-climbing in the Alps with illustrations furnished by the same hand. The author and artist is equally skillful as a picturesque writer and an artist of rare ability, both in landscape and figure work.

Romance.
Eleven of the sixteen attractive stories which Romance presents in its May number are either written expressly for it or are original translations. Among these are the leading tale, a society story, in the fresh setting of Central Park in May, by Rhodes Macknight; and a group of three admirable specimens of the realistic style of fiction.

DIED AFTER COMING ACROSS THE OCEAN.

MRS. CAMPBELL TAKEN SICK
ON THE VOYAGE.

She Was Almost Helpless When Taken From the Cars at Lima and Passed Away Sunday—Doings of County People—Spring Work is Well Along.

LIMA, May 1.—Mrs. Campbell and daughter Maggie, mother and sister of Mrs. Nugent, arrived here from Ireland last Friday morning. Mrs. Campbell was taken from the cars sick with pneumonia, and died Sunday at the home of her daughter. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church Tuesday at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Bray. She was laid to rest in the Lima cemetery. Ezra Saxe and wife left Monday morning for a few days' visit with friends in Watertown. Carrie Johnson spent part of last week with Whitewater friends. Mrs. McDonald, who has been sick for the past two months, is still under the doctor's care, and fears are entertained of her recovery. W. F. Anderson made a trip to Fort Atkinson last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. George Charles, of Afton, Sundayed with Lima friends. Mrs. Anderson has a sister from the northern part of the state visiting here. Little Nettie Freeman was five years old last Wednesday, and her mother helped her celebrate the day by giving a party to her little playmates. Refreshments were served and all had a nice time.

WEEK'S NEWS FROM MILTON.

Mrs. W. P. Clarke a Member of the Waukegan Board of Visitors.

MILTON, May 1.—James Brooks, of Hortonville, is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. W. Crane. Mr. Brooks is an old soldier and as a result of his army life is obliged to get about in a wheel chair, his legs being useless. Dr. Borden is able to be out again after a brief but severe illness. Mrs. W. P. Clarke has been appointed a member of the board of visitors to the Waukegan Soldiers' Home by the state department officials of the W. R. C. Mrs. John W. Vandewalker died Saturday night. Funeral arrangements not made at this writing. Ezra Dary is running the wagon repair shop on College street formerly occupied by Rood. Mrs. M. S. Baker, of Juneau, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. C. Monroe. William Davis and family, of Janesville, were the guests of Milton relatives Saturday. Dr. A. B. Woodard, of Wellville, N. Y., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Crandall last week. Mrs. Pickett, of Chicago, is stopping with Dr. Ella J. Crandall for a time. Mr. Monroe, of Cadott, visited his sister, Mrs. H. W. Rood, last week. The members of Company K, Thirtieth Wisconsin, who were in Janesville Thursday, were dined by their old commander, Captain Pliny Norcross. The late rains and warm weather are making vegetation grow rapidly, and some farmers are planting corn despite the fact that the "oak leaves are not as big as a squirrel's ear." E. W. Farnham, of Wichita, Kan., spent Saturday and Sunday with his uncle, Rev. E. D. Farnham. The gentleman was a student in Milton college many years ago. Major S. S. Rockwood of Portage will be a candidate for state superintendent before the republican convention and is the best man yet named for that office. Mrs. Will H. Borden of St. Paul, is the guest of Dr. W. H. Borden. Mrs. Louis Wolf, at the "six corners" presented her husband with a little son, being their first born.

SHOPIERE CHURCH CELEBRATES.

Congregational Society Mark the Flight of Time—Robert Dole Injured.

SHOPIERE, May 1.—The anniversary celebration of the Congregational church last week, was well attended, and all enjoyed themselves, meeting old friends from whom they had been separated for years. On Saturday noon dinner was served in the chapel to all. The tables were spread with the best the ladies of the vicinity could prepare, and all know from past experience that we have some pretty good cooks. The decorations were of choice flowers. A photograph was taken of all present. All those interested in Decoration day exercises will meet at Fraternity hall, Wednesday evening, May 2d, at half-past seven o'clock sharp. By order of committee. Robert Dole had the misfortune to dislocate his shoulder and while handling last week a colt, threw it out again. Mrs. Thomas Holmes and granddaughter, after spending the winter in Janesville have returned home. A good many from abroad visited this place last week to attend the celebration at the church. This town was well represented at the department encampment at Janesville last week. Charles Rice, having been appointed road commissioner for the north part of the town, will commence work as soon as the weather will permit. Rev. R. K. Maniton delivered a very interesting sermon to a large audience at the Congregational church Sunday evening last.

DEMOCRATIC HOUSES FOR LEAF.

MAGNOLIA, May.—Frank Clifford and Charles Emmons have sold their crops of tobacco at democratic prices. G. Howard's house is improving in looks with a new coat of paint. Wren Worthing is doing the work. Henry Johanna has bought Mrs. Seger's place and taken possession. Hans

Hanson is an early gardner. He has potatoes up and growing fast. George Bahris drilling a well at the creamery. Mrs. Edith Whaley of Evansville has been visiting her parents here. Our school in District No. 3 commenced last Monday morning. Miss Alice Clifford officiating as teacher. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Howard and little Zora spent Saturday and Sunday in Brooklyn, the guests of B. Johnson and wife.

COOKSVILLE I. O. G. T. LECTURE.
Rev. W. Palmer Gives Interesting Discourse—Mrs. Fisher Near Death.

COOKSVILLE, May 7.—Rev. Mr. Palmer the Dist. Lecturer of I. O. G. T. gave us a fine lecture Friday evening, but owing to the rain in the afternoon very few were out. He remained over Sunday and gave a temperance sermon Sunday evening which was very much enjoyed. Mrs. J. P. VanVleck was very happily surprised by her sister, Mrs. Grace Love, of Iowa, last Wednesday. She came to remain all summer. Charlie Miller lost the best horse he had with the distemper. Mrs. Graves visited her daughters in Stoughton Friday and Saturday. Walter Speer was in Janesville a part of last week a witness in Dr. Roberts' damage suit. Newkirk & Franklin went to Chicago and purchased their blacksmith's tools; they have everything new and are good workmen we hope they will do well here. VanPatten & Newkirk have a new sign up on their meat market, and have painted the whole front of the building. Al Whaley has a new fence in front of his house. Mr. Forest has rented the Collins house and is fixing and cleaning it preparatory to moving in. His wife is in Chicago yet. It looks natural to see Isaac Porter around town. He was here the most of last week looking after his farm. Mrs. Fisher, an old-time resident, who is eighty-eight years old, is gradually failing. She lives alone and cannot be prevailed upon to live with any of her friends of whom she has many. Crops look very fine in this vicinity.

BURGLARS AROUND JOHNSTOWN.

The Town Line Visited by Many Midnight Marauders.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN, May 1.—Burglars have been on the town line within the last few weeks. Several houses have been entered and clothing and provisions stolen. Mrs. George Roe and daughter Grace dined with their cousins Carrie and Allie Johnson last Sunday. Covenant meetings at the church next Saturday at 2 p. m. Mrs. A. E. Cary had the misfortune to fall last week, while helping at the parsonage, and is laid aside farm work for the present. Mrs. Will Bishop leads the A. C. F. meeting next Sunday evening. George Roe has recently purchased a new organ for his new daughters, Grace and Genie. Teenard Osborn, who resides in Marquette county, is visiting his brother, H. R. Osborn. Mr. Sturdevant has recently purchased a nice double carriage.

Notes From Porter.

PORTER, May 1.—A traveling photographer passed through here last week taking teacher and pupils pictures at the schools. Arbor day was observed in all of our schools with exercises and in beautifying the school yard. Some of the smartest farmers are planting corn, but a number think it is too early. Bernie Farrington wears a genial smile as he says, its a boy. Chris Ryan, of Evansville, was a caller on Friday. Miss Mamie Tracy is attending school in Janesville again this term. Miss Lois Fessender is learning dressmaking at the shop of Mrs. McKinney in Evansville. Miss Maggie Devine, of Edgerton, is staying with her sister here.

W. N. G. INSPECTOR COMING.

Janesville Militia Men Figuring on the Annual Inspection by Lieut. Buck.

The Janesville Light Infantry expect inspectors almost any time, as Lieutenant W. L. Buck, U. S. A., inspector of the Wisconsin National guard, has begun his official examination of the several companies in the state militia. He started with the Third regiment, his first inspection being of Co. C, at Hudson, Monday evening.

DARK LANTERN MAN CAUGHT AT 2 A. M.

ACHESON AND HOGAN MAKE A NIGHT RAID.

Two Hours Patrolling on Milton and Prospect Avenues Results in the Capture of the Mysterious Person Who Disturbed the Hanthorn Home Sunday night.

Chief Acheson and Patrolman Hogan had an exciting chase last night after the Second ward dark lantern man, and they captured him. Determined if possible to rid the city of tough characters the two officers resolved last night to do some patrolling in the outskirts of the city. Mr. Graham's house on Milton avenue had been burglarized and Street Commissioner Hanthorn's home and others on the same avenue had been disturbed by a dark lantern. The officers therefore concluded they would patrol the Second ward first and see for themselves what was going on. It was after one o'clock this morning when the two guardians, armed with heavy canes and revolvers found themselves up at the east end of Prospect avenue. Everything was still. Presently the chief whispered "There, see that dark lantern." The two officers strained their eyes in breathless silence as they watched the lantern's eye cross and recross the street, as if dodging around a house some distance away from the officers.

"Now we will bag that fellow," whispered Hogan. The officers deployed in regular skirmishing order canes and revolvers in hand, advancing in double-quick order. They reached the first corner and saw the lantern's eye was approaching, so they halted in the shadow of a gas lamp. The man with the dark lantern was coming rapidly, and the officers cocked their revolvers and held their canes with a firm grip. It was all over in a moment. The man with the lantern's eye came within the rays of the gas jet, when the officers discovered that it was carried by the Second ward lamplighter who travels on a bicycle.

"Are you the chap that frightened Mrs. Hanthorn last night?" inquired Chief Acheson. "I don't know that I did. I passed by Mr. Hanthorn's house about 2 o'clock that night, and my bull's eye might have reflected in their house. You see I pass around two sides of that house, usually taking the sidewalk in wet times, and you can see how easy it would be for the light to enter with blinds open."

Acheson and Hogan lit a fresh cigar and declared the hunt off, both returning to their homes at 2:30 this morning.

BARLEY DROPPING IN PRICE.

JACOB AS THE THEME
IN THE TABERNACLE

DR. TALMAGE TALKS ABOUT
THE SUPERNATURAL.

The Enemies of Our Dreams and What
They May Signify—The Dawn of Higher Civilization Is Breaking on the World

—A Remarkable Sermon.
BROOKLYN, APRIL 27, 1894.—The Tabernacle was crowded this morning with the usual throng of eager listeners. Dr. Talmage preached on the spiritual conflicts of life, taking his text Genesis xxxiii: 24-26: "And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day. And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint as he wrestled with him. And he said,
'Let me go, for the day breaketh.'"
And he said, 'I will not let thee go except thou bless me.'"

The dust arose from a traveling herd of cattle, and sheep, and goats, and camels. They are the present that Jacob sends to get the good-will of his offended brother. That night Jacob halts by the brook Jabbok. But there is no rest for the weary man.
No shining ladder to let the angels down into his dream; but a fierce combat, that lasts until the morning, with an unknown visitor. They each try to throw the other. The unknown visitor, to reveal his superior power, by a touch wrenches Jacob's thigh bone from its socket, perhaps maiming him for life. As on the morning sky the clusters of purple cloud begin to ripen, Jacob sees it is an angel with whom he has been contending, and not one of his brother's coadjutors. "Let me go," cries the angel, lifting himself up into increasing light, "the day breaketh."

You see, in the first place, that God allows good people sometimes to get into a terrible struggle. Jacob was a good man; but here he is left alone in the midnight to wrestle with a terrible influence by the brook Jabbok. For Joseph, a pit; for David, a wild beast den; for John the Baptist, a wilderness diet and the ex-ecutioner's axe; for Peter, a prison;
for Paul, shipwreck; for John, desolate Patmos; for Vashti, most insulting cruelty; for Josephine, banishment; for Mrs. Sigourney, the agony of a drunkard's wife; for John Wesley, stones hurled by an infuriated mob;
for Catherine, the Scotch girl, the drowning surges of the sea; for Mr.
Burns, the buffeting of the Montreal populace; for John Brown of Edinburgh, the pistol-shot of Lord Claver-house; for Hugh McKail, the scaffold; for Latimer, the stake; for Christ, the cross. For whom the rocks, the gib-bets, the guillotines, the thumb-screws? For the sons and daughters of the Lord God Almighty. Some one said to a Christian reformer, "The world is against you." "Then," he replied, "I am against the world."

I will go further, and say that every Christian has his struggle. This man had his combat in Wall street; this one on Broad street; this one on Fulton street; this one on Chestnut street; this one on State street; this one on Lombard street; this one on the Bourse. With financial misfortune you have had the midnight wrestle.
Red-hot disasters have dropped into your store from loft to cellar.
What you bought you could not sell.
Whom you trusted fled. The help you expected would not come. Some giant panic, with long arms, and grip like death, took hold of you in an awful wrestle, from which you have not yet escaped, and it is uncertain whether it will throw you, or you will throw it. Here is another soul, in struggle with some bad appetite. He knew not how stealthily it was growing upon him. One hour he woke up. He said, "For the sake of my soul, of my family, and of my children, and of my God, I must stop this!" And behold he found himself alone, by the brook Jabbok; and it was midnight. That evil appetite seized upon him, and he seized upon it; and oh, the horror of the conflict!
When once a bad habit has aroused itself up to destroy a man, and the man has sworn that, by the help of the eternal God, he will destroy it, all heaven draws itself out in a long line of light, to look from above, and hell stretches itself in myriads of spite to look up from beneath. I have seen men rally themselves for such a struggle; and they have bitten their lips, and clenched their fists, and cried with a blood-red earnestness, and a rain of scalding tears, "God help me!"

From a wrestle with habit I have seen men fall back defeated. Calling for no help, but relying on their own resolutions, they have come into the struggle; and for a time it seemed as if they were getting the upper hand of their habit; but that habit rallied again its infernal power, and lifted a soul from its standing, and with a force borrowed from the pit, hurled it into utter darkness. First, I saw the auctioneer's mallet fall on the pictures, and musical instruments, and the rich upholstery of his family parlor.
After awhile I saw him fall into the ditch. Then, in the midnight, when the children were dreaming their sweetest dreams, and Christian households are silent with slumber, angel-watched, I heard him give the sharp shriek that followed the stab of his own poniard. He fell from an honored social position; he fell from a family circle of which once he was the grandest attraction; he fell from the house of God, at whose altars he had been consecrated; he fell—for ever!
But, thank God, I have often seen a better termination than that. I have seen men prepare themselves for such a wrestling. They laid hold of God's help as they went into combat. The giant habit, regaled by the cup of many temptations, came out strong and defiant. They clenched. There were the writhings and distortions of a fearful struggle. But the old giant began to waver; and at last, in the midnight, alone, with none but God to witness, by the brook Jabbok, the giant fell; and the triumphant wrestler broke the darkness with the cry,

"Thanks be unto God, who giveth us
the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ." There is a widow's heart, that first was desolated by bereavement, and since, by the anxieties and trials, that came in the support of a family. It is a sad thing to see a man contending for a livelihood under disadvantages;
but to see a delicate woman, with helpless little ones at her back, fighting the giants of poverty and sorrow, is more affecting. It was a humble home, and passers-by knew not that within those four walls were displays of courage more admirable than that of Hannibal crossing the Alps, or the Pass of Thermopylae, or Balaklava, where,
"into the jaws of death, rode the six hundred." These heroes had the whole world to cheer them on; but there were none to applaud the struggle in the humble home. She fought for bread, for clothing, for fire, for shelter, with aching head and weak side, and exhausted strength, through the long night by the brook Jabbok.
Could it be that none would give her help? Had God forgotten to be gracious? No! contending soul. The midnight air is full of wings, coming to the rescue. She hears it now, in the sough of the night wind, in the ripple of the brook Jabbok—the promise made so long ago, ringing down the sky: "Thy fatherless children I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me!" Some one said to a very poor woman, "How is it that in such distress you keep cheerful?" She said, "I do it by what I call cross prayers. When I had my rent to pay, and nothing to pay it with, and bread to buy and nothing to buy it with, I used to sit down and cry. But now I do not get discouraged. If I go along the street when I come to a corner of the street, I say, 'The Lord help me!' I then go on until I come to another crossing of the street, and again I say, 'The Lord help me!' And so I utter a prayer at every crossing;
and since I have got into the habit of saying these 'cross prayers,' I have been able to keep up my courage."

Learn again from this subject that people sometimes are surprised to find out that what they have been struggling with in the darkness is really an "angel of blessing." Jacob found in the morning that this strange personage was not an enemy, but a God-despatched messenger to promise prosperity for him and for his children.
And so many a man, at the close of his trial, has found out that he has been trying to throw down his own blessing. If you are a Christian man, I will go back in your history and find that the grandest things that have ever happened to you, have been your trials.
Nothing short of scourging, imprisonment, and shipwreck, could have made Paul what he was. When David was fleeing through the wilderness, pursued by his own son, he was being prepared to become the sweet singer of Israel.
The pit and the dungeon were the best schools at which Joseph ever graduated. The hurricane that upset the tent, and killed Job's children, prepared the man of Uz to write the magnificent poem that has astounded the ages.
There is no way to get the wheat out of the straw but to thresh it. There is no way to purify the gold but to burn it. Look at the people who have always had it their own way. They are proud, discontented, useless and unhappy. If you want to find cheerful folks, go among those who have been purified by the fire. After Rossini had rendered "William Tell" the five hundredth time a company of musicians came under his window in Paris and serenaded him. They put upon his brow a golden crown of laurel leaves! But, amid all the applause and enthusiasm Rossini turned to a friend and said, "I would give all this brilliant scene for a few days of youth and love." Contrast the melancholy feeling of Rossini, who had everything that this world could give him, to the joyful experience of Isaac Watts, whose misfortunes were innumerable, when he says:

The Hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets,
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.
Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry,
We are marching through Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high.

It is prosperity that kills, and trouble that saves. While the Israelites were on the march amid great privations and hardships they behaved well. After awhile they prayed for meat; and the sky darkened with a great flock of quails; and these quails fell in large multitudes all about them; and the Israelites ate and ate, and stuffed themselves until they died. Oh, my friends, it is not hardship, or trial, or starvation that injures the soul, but abundant supply. It is not the vulture of trouble that eats up the Christian's life; it is the quails! it is the quails!
You will yet find out that your midnight wrestle by the brook Jabbok is with an angel of God, come down to bless and save.

Learn again that, while our wrestling with trouble may be triumphant, we must expect that it will leave its mark upon us. Jacob prevailed, but the angel touched him and his thighbone sprang from its socket, and the good man went limping on his way.
We must carry through this world the mark of the combat. What plowed those premature wrinkles in your face? What whitened your hair before it was time for frost? What silenced forever so much of the hilarity of your household? Ah! it is because the angel of trouble hath touched you that you go limping on your way. You need not be surprised that those who have passed through the fire do not feel as gay as once they did.

Do not be out of patience with those who come not out of their despondency.
They may triumph over their loss, and yet their gait shall tell you that they have been trouble-touched. Are we Stoics that we can, unmoved, see our cradle rifled of the bright eyes and the sweet lips? Can we stand unmoved and see our gardens of earthly delight uprooted? Will Jesus, who wept himself, be angry with us if we pour our tears into the graves that open to swallow down what we love best? Was Lazarus more dear to him than our beloved dead to us? No. We have a right to weep. Our tears must come. You shall not drive them back to scald the heart. They fall into God's bottle. Afflicted ones have died because they could not weep. Thank God for the sweet, the mysterious relief that comes to us in tears! Under this gentle rain the flowers of corn put forth their bloom. God pity that dry, withered, parched, all-consuming grief that wings its hands, and grinds its teeth, and bites its nails unto the quick, but can not weep! We may have found the comfort of the cross, and yet ever after show that in the dark night, and by the brook Jabbok, we were trouble touched.

Again: we may take the idea of the text, and announce the approach of the day-dawn. No one was ever more glad to see the morning than was Jacob after that night of struggle. It is appropriate for philanthropists and Christians to cry out with this angel of the text, "The day breaketh." The world's prospects are brightening.
The church of Christ is rising up in its strength to go forth, "fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners." Clap your hands, all ye people, the day breaketh.
The bigotries of the earth are perishing. The time was when we were told that if we wanted to get to heaven, we must be immersed or sprinkled; or we must believe in the perseverance of the saints, or in falling away from grace, or a liturgy, or no liturgy; or they must be Calvinists, or Armenians, in order to reach heaven. We have all come to confess now that these are non-essentials in religion.

During my vacation, one summer,
I was in a Presbyterian audience, and it was sacramental day, and with grateful heart I received the Holy Communion. On the next Sabbath I was in a Methodist church, and sat at a love-feast. On the following Sabbath I was in an Episcopalian church, and kneled at the altar and received the consecrated bread. I do not know which service I enjoyed the most. "I believe in the communion of saints and in the life everlasting." "The day breaketh."

WAS IN HIS SOUL.
And When the Sweet Strains of Mozart Sounded He Cried Aloud.

A few days before Gounod's death,
he told a Paris reporter how his family became convinced of his musical genius. He was 12 years old and was getting a general education at a preparatory school. His mother consented one evening to take him to hear Mozart's "Don Juan." Gounod sat with eyes and mouth wide open and did not utter a word until the overture was half over. Then, as the musicians struck a few mighty notes, the little fellow screamed, trembled, threw himself into his mother's arms and sobbed:
"Oh, mamma, mamma! That, that is music!" He became so excited that his mother dared not keep him in the theater. She led him out before the beginning of the first act, convinced that she must cease opposing his desire to make music his profession. "I remember it as if it was yesterday," said Gounod, the old man, but a few weeks before his death. "It was as if God had descended from heaven and had spoken to us little men. My remembrance of that evening of 'Don Juan' is to me still a blinding magical light. Mozart has remained for me the master of harmony above all other masters. He is much more than the first among them; he is the only one."

Need Another Kossuth.

The great public reception given in Philadelphia in honor of Kossuth on Dec. 24, 1851, is recalled by an old resident in the Philadelphia Record:
"I well recollect his handsome appearance as he rode in a carriage along Chestnut street and the fervor of the welcome he received. Medals bearing his profile were sold about the streets, his soft, felt hat, with sable plume, was the fashion of the day, and full beards with mustache, which before that time were seldom worn in this country, were gradually introduced.
But the distinctly national spirit evoked by his presence here, as the formally invited guest of our government, was the most memorable event of his visit. In my opinion the true spirit of nationality reached its height here then."

Bicycles for the Park Police.

The advantage of bicycling, long ago admitted, grows apace. Philadelphia authorities last season adopted the use of the wheel in their park department, and elsewhere it is a matter of record that much time has been saved, and otherwise almost impossible results secured by using the wheel.
Boston intends, as usual, being at the front in all matters pertaining to expediting important business, and the park commissioners of the city have voted to adopt the bicycle for the use of the park policemen. Chicago has not yet been heard from.

EVERY action, every word, every meal is a part of man's trial and discipline. Character is assuredly ripening or else blighting.—Robertson.

G.A.R. NOTICE

We take this opportunity of informing our subscribers that the new Commissioner of Pensions has been appointed. He is an old soldier, and we believe that soldiers and their heirs will receive justice at his hands. We do not anticipate that there will be any radical changes in the administration of pension affairs under the new regime.

We would advise, however, that U.
S. soldiers, sailors, and their heirs, take steps to make application at once, if they have not already done so, in order to secure the benefit of the early filing of their claims in case there should be any future pension legislation. Such legislation is seldom retroactive. Therefore it is of great importance that applications be filed in the department at the earliest possible date.

If U. S. soldiers, or their widows, children, or parents desire information in regard to pension matters, they should write to the Press Claims Company at Washington, D. C., and they will prepare and send the necessary application, if they find them entitled under the numerous laws enacted for their benefit. Address:

BY WASHINGTON POLICE.

No Measure in Dealing With the Procession of Unemployed at the Capital—General Randall Leaves Chicago With 450 Men, Escorted By Police.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Coxey's army marched to the capitol today—a ragged, seedy, draggled lot. Very different the broken file of four hundred tramps looked from the fifty thousand the Massillon leader had promised. Very different the reception from what the Ohio horse-trader had pic-

cerning meetings and processions in the capitol grounds, and in reply to his objections that the law was unconstitutional they told him that they were here to execute the law and not to construe it.

Chief of Police O'Mara of Pittsburgh is in consultation with Major Moore. A score of out-of-town detectives from principal cities are in Washington.

Twenty mounted policemen patrol the country in which the Coxey camp is located. They are in command of a sergeant, and will take into custody any one violating any regulations of the district.

COAL MEN AND REND
DON'T GO TOGETHER

OPERATORS REPUDIATE OFFERS FOR A COMPROMISE.

Indiana and Illinois Coal Men Will Have Nothing to Do With an Interstate Agreement Regulating Prices—Toluca Mines Shut Down Tight—Trouble Feared in Ashland

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1.—The manifesto of Col. W. P. Rend, the Chicago coal operator, for a settlement of the miners' strike was issued to the other operators last night. They would not agree to a conference. They seem determined to win the fight. Operators in Indiana and Illinois declared they would have nothing to do with an inter-state agreement fixing the price of labor.

The coal supply through Pennsylvania is growing smaller. The Sligo bar iron mill has closed down on account of no fuel. The coal supply in any of the mills can not last over two weeks, and gas is too scarce to allow its general use. On the Alleghany Valley railway old railroad ties are being cut up into billets to allow their being burned in the locomotives.

The strikers at Washington Run had a fight with the deputy sheriffs last night. One of them was badly used up. When he got back to the strikers' camp and reported what happened his companions started with sticks of dynamite for the building where the deputies are lodged. They intended to wreck it with the dynamite, but the leaders succeeded in getting the explosives away from them.

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 1.—General Manager Ferris of the Ohio Central has issued an order to cut the pay of all salaried men 33 1/2 per cent, beginning May 1. Mr. Ferris says it is a temporary reduction, rendered necessary by the coal strike, as half the road's business is coal traffic. It is understood a cut will soon be made on the Hocking Valley.

John McBride Has His Say.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—John McBride, yesterday, after reading the statement of Col. Rend's son to the effect that if the coal operators did not soon agree among themselves and send their men to work he would start up his mines, said: "Before Col. Rend can set his men to work at the advance in wages which is asked he must first secure the consent of the men. There are hundreds of operators ready and willing to begin work and to pay the price for mining which is asked by the miners' association if the men were willing to return to work. What they desire is fair treatment of the miners and fair treatment by all operators toward each other."

TOLUCA MINES CLOSED TIGHT.

Fear They Will Not Be Protected Said to Have Scared Workmen.

TOLUCA, Ill., May 1.—Toluca mines closed last evening. The miners held a meeting Saturday evening and decided to go to work, but Sunday they held another and decided to quit until all the mines resume. The colored miners have joined interests with the white miners. The mines of all Northern Illinois are now closed except two, one at Streator and one at La Salle, the Mattheisson & Higler Zinc company. The miners at Spring Valley voted to permit no company mines to work at all.

PANA, Ill., May 1.—Great apprehension is felt here on account of the report that the miners from the Springfield district are on their way to Pana to force out the miners at work there. Trouble is feared, for there is great opposition to the strike at this place.

ROCKFORD, Ill., May 1.—Many manufacturing concerns here will be compelled to shut down unless the exhausted supply of soft coal is speedily replenished by the strikers going to work.

LINCOLN, Ill., May 1.—The 200 miners in this city have quit work and will await the result of the general strike before resuming.

CENTRALIA, Ill., May 1.—The 400 miners employed in the two mines here will come out and join in the strike. Sandoval miners have voted against going out.

CARLYLE, Ill., May 1.—Five hundred miners struck between here and East St. Louis yesterday.

UNDER UNCLE SAM'S PROTECTION.

Wisconsin Central Will Put Upper Dockmen at Work.

ASHLAND, Wis., May 1.—The Wisconsin Central proposes to take a hand in the fight against the striking upper dockmen. It is proposed to commence on the dock to-day with men who will work for $1.35 days and $1.45 nights. The Wisconsin Central has Uncle Sam at its back and has published a manifesto stating the fact. United States Marshal Main says he will have twenty deputy marshals with him at the dock.

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 1.—The Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic has agreed to contract to trim vessels at 2 1/2 cents a ton and leave the employment of men and the choice of foremen to the executive committee. This ends the strike.

OMAHA, Neb., May 1.—The three carpenters' and joiners' unions of Omaha have decided to ask May 1 that eight hours shall constitute a day's work. This is now a nine hour city. President Gascoigne says thirty days the union will demand 30 cents an hour.

GREEK EARTHQUAKE
TAKES 500 LIVES.

ANOTHER SHOCK SPREADS AWFUL DESOLATION.

Towns in Ruins and Hosts of People Dead—The Disaster a Repetition of That One Week Ago—Accident Costs Many Lives in Brahamov, Roumania.

ATHENS, May 1.—Another earthquake shook Greece this morning. From every hand reports are coming in of villages destroyed and cities in ruins. The disaster was preceded by tremblings of the earth that gave enough warning so many were prepared and fled to the open country, but the list of the dead will reach fully five hundred.

BRAHMOV, Roumania, May 1.—A terrible accident occurred here yesterday. While the pier was crowded with people in holiday attire, bound for Galitz, on the Danube, waiting for the steamer which was to convey them to that place, the pier gave way and threw about one hundred and twenty people into the water. Many of the excursionists are believed to have been drowned.

HOT DEBATE IN THE SENATE

Bitter Animosity Aroused in the Discussion of the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Senator Harris, who is in charge of the tariff bill, lost patience yesterday at the way in which progress was impeded by Senator Hale in the morning hour. As on several preceding days Mr. Hale objected to giving way for special measures in the morning hour. Finally Mr. Harris abruptly moved that the senator proceed with the consideration of the tariff bill. This at once caused a sharp discussion as to the manner in which the bill was to be debated and when the amendments were to be introduced. It lasted until Mr. Allen (pop., Neb.) threw "senatorial courtesy" to the winds and demanded the regular order. The tariff bill was then laid before the senate.

Mr. Aldrich renewed his comments on the Carlisle interview. In reply to a remark by Mr. Vest that Mr. Aldrich had been falsely informed concerning the proposed amendments to the tariff and if these statements were repeated it must be on his own responsibility. Mr. Aldrich accepted the challenge, with the statement on his lips that he was "informed and believed that amendments had been prepared to the bill since it had been reported to the senate, as he had previously stated." He asserted that amendments were in print and said it was his understanding that they were to be submitted to the senate shortly.

Mr. Mills (dem., Tex.) followed in a brief, sharp speech, in which he denied that the bill had been improperly prepared and reported.

Mr. Palmer remarked that it was not necessary or expected that a bill should be perfected in committee; as for himself he had not given a power of attorney to any one.

Senator Voorhees replied to the speech made by Senator Sherman last Saturday, and quoted a long paragraph from the Ohio senator's speech, in which he said that the finance committee had not had opportunity to consider the pending tariff bill in the usual way. He took especial exception to a sentence in Mr. Sherman's speech, reading, "this bill has never been considered by the finance committee." He asserted the tariff bill had been reported to the full finance committee March 8 and had not been reported by the committee to the senate until March 20.

Senator Sherman, in reply, said the bill was never read in detail to permit changes. If it had been and votes had been taken a more satisfactory measure might have been presented. Mr. Sherman repeated that there was no opportunity for consideration until the democratic majority had agreed upon changes.

After Mr. Harris Mr. Voorhees insisted that the Record showed the bill had been considered in every detail from end to end and that the minority had ample opportunity to offer amendments. He called particular attention to Mr. Aldrich's motion made in committee to strike out the income tax feature. "I desire to say right here," said he, commenting on this motion, "no matter what rumors may be floating in the air, that the income tax will stay in this bill."

A few minutes afterward an incident occurred which created a profound sensation. Senator Turpie of Indiana, in a most bitter and scathing speech, denounced Senator Aldrich for his attack on the action of the committee. The speech certainly strained senatorial courtesy to the utmost limit, and created intense excitement in the chamber. Mr. Aldrich answered quietly and briefly, and the incident closed without another word. Mr. Quay resuming the prepared speech he began some weeks ago. A motion to go into executive session developed the absence of a quorum and at 5:30 the senate adjourned.

Extension Letter Carriers.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Congressman Goldizer has introduced a bill in congress to provide for the relief of aged and disabled letter carriers by the establishment of a letter carrier's relief fund, which fund shall be composed of assessments levied upon the regular salary of all letter carriers engaged in the service. He proposes to withhold a sum equal to 1 per cent per annum of the amount of each letter carrier's salary to be devoted to this purpose. He provides that the fund so raised shall be applied to the relief of any carrier who, in the line of duty, shall be permanently injured or disabled, mentally or physically (if such disability is not the result of his own vicious habits), so as to incapacitate him for the performance of further duty in the service. If an employee of the first class in the mail service receives a permanent injury he is to receive $500 per annum; if of the second class $400; and if of the third class $300 per annum.

WANT TIME EXTENDED.

Chinese of San Francisco Concerned About the Registration Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 1.—The Chinese six companies held a big meeting here last night and again petitioned their minister at Washington to memorialize congress for a further extension of time for registration under the McCrary act. Unless their prayer is granted the registration books will close on Thursday next. The Chinese call attention to the fact that every incoming steamer brings many Chinese, whose sole purpose in returning is to register, and that on the steamer Oceanic, which arrived here Saturday, there over 500 Chinese who want to register, many of whom will not be permitted by the custom officers to come ashore before that time has expired.

Officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children have arrested Ching Say, a Clay street merchant, for damaging his daughter's feet to keep them from growing. The officers intend to make a test case, and, if successful, to prosecute other Chinese offenders.

BOMBS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Many Buildings Violently Shaken Up by an Explosion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 1.—An attempt was made with dynamite to wreck a restaurant on Mission street, near Twenty-eighth. Not much damage was done, however, though the report could be heard nearly a mile and buildings in the immediate vicinity were violently shaken. The restaurant is kept by two Slavonians, and it is believed by the police that the explosion was planned by a Slav, to whom they sold another restaurant, some time since.

Star Rubber Mortgage Is Valid.

TRENTON, N. J., May 1.—Vice-Chancellor Bird has rendered a decision in the famous Star Rubber company litigation, sustaining as valid mortgages for nearly $400,000, made by the directors of the company in favor of themselves and three Trenton banks, and recorded at midnight in January, 1891, to secure indorsements and cash advancements, three days before the concern went into the hands of a receiver.

Trying to Settle the Strike.

ST. PAUL, May 1.—"We expect to win this fight within forty-eight hours," was the way President Debs stated his views yesterday. He said he made the statement on the authority of the general manager of another road, who told him that Mr. Hill would grant the demanded advance to all remaining classes of employees within that time. Passenger trains were sent out as usual here, except that the Breckinridge train was held one hour to take on 100 deputies for that point. Everything is quiet in the yards here. A conference is now in session in Minneapolis between Mr. Debs and representatives of the commercial bodies of the two cities looking to settlement by arbitration.

Ready for Annual A. P. A. Meeting.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 1.—The supreme officers of the A. P. A. in the world, have arrived in Des Moines for the meeting to-morrow. Among the most important actions that will be taken by the council at its session in Des Moines will be the promulgation of a platform for declarations with reference to the indiscriminate foreign immigration.

Senator Stockbridge Dead.

CHICAGO, May 1.—United States Senator Francis B. Stockbridge of Michigan died at 7 o'clock last evening at the home of his nephew in this city. The end came unexpectedly. Although he had been ill for several weeks his condition was not thought critical and his death came as an unusually severe blow to his wife and friends.

Booster Elections To-Day.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—Elections will be held in all incorporated cities in Indiana to-day. The campaigns have been the most enthusiastic of any spring elections held in this state in years.

FROM A MOB'S ROPE
DANGLED WILSON.

MURDERER OF AN IOWA POLICEMAN LYNCHED.

Missouri Valley People Take From Jail the Burglar Who Killed Their City Marshal and String Him Up—Very Little Resistance Offered By the Sheriff.

MISSOURI VALLEY, Iowa, May 1.—Wilson, the burglar, who shot the city marshal here Saturday, was lynched early this morning. The mob seemed to have no particular organization but accomplished its purpose easily through its determination not to be balked. Officers were powerless, although not disposed to endanger any lives in defending the prisoner.

Crooked Juror Is Sent to Jail.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—Juror Alvis Armstrong, who offered to hang the jury in the bank cases for $5,000, was tried for contempt of court and sentenced by Judge Baker to eighteen months without labor in the penitentiary at Michigan City. Frank Starnard, the go-between, who, with Armstrong, was also under $4,000 bonds for a conspiracy to corrupt the Federal jury, was held to the grand jury and admitted on bail.

Threatens to Kill Breckinridge.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 1.—A communication postmarked New York has been received by the postmaster at Paris, Ky., asking him to warn the authorities that if Col. Breckinridge is allowed to speak there he will be shot down and the building blown up with dynamite. The letter writer says he is a Kentuckian.

TORE UP THE TRACKS.

Chicago Gets the Best of the Lake Shore Railroad Company.

CHICAGO, May 1.—The bitter contest between the city and the Lake Shore railroad came to a violent climax in the drawing of spikes, the displacement of rails and ties and the throwing of dirt by a band of 200 laborers employed by the city and protected by nearly one hundred policemen from Hyde Park and Englewood.

If the railway company should resort to violent measures it will meet with a hot reception, as the police have their war paint on and are under command of Inspector Hunt and Captain Aldrich. Every move on the part of the city has been personally directed by Mayor Hopkins, who declares that he is in the fight to stay and that the railroad will pay dearly for the violated faith with the city officers.

HATTIE BLAINE WEDS.

Becomes Mrs. Truxton Beale at Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Very quietly and in the presence of their intimate personal friends, Truxton Beale, ex-minister to Persia, and Harriet Blaine, daughter of the late Secretary Blaine, were married at the Blaine family residence on Lafayette square at 1 o'clock yesterday. The Rev. Dr. Hamlin, pastor of the Presbyterian church of the Covenant, performed the ceremony. Edward Woolston of New York was the best man and there were no bridesmaids. There was an entire absence of show or ceremony about the wedding.

Ball's Body Found in the Woods.

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., May 1.—The body of Peter Ball, who disappeared from Plymouth seven weeks ago, has been found in the woods near Wausau by an Indian. He left his name written on a log, and besides giving business instructions to his wife in a letter stated that his death was caused by sickness and starvation.

A Battle With Icebergs.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 1.—After a twenty-one days' storm of unusual severity the Allan line steamship Corean, in charge of Capt. Main, has arrived at this port bearing marks of a long battle with icebergs and ice floes, from which the iron vessel barely escaped.

Paris Forbids Processions.

PARIS, May 1.—The police authorities express confidence that there will be no disorder in the city May day-to-day. They have announced that lectures, banquets, and the like will not be interfered with, but that mass-meetings and processions will not be permitted.

Forming Coxey Army Home Reserves.

DENVER, Colo., May 1.—Ten thousand men are said to be already enrolled in the Coxey army home reserve in Colorado. The force in Denver numbers 1,200. Gov. Waite cordially indorses the movement.

Painters on Strike.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Twenty-five hundred painters, or half the entire number belonging to the Painters' union in this city, struck work yesterday. This step was taken as a result of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators of America held Sunday.

Clinging Ramsey's AHB!

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, May 1.—There was a continuation of testimony tending to establish an alibi in the Ramsey case yesterday. Witness Bentley was recalled and said that Witness Smith represented Ramsey as advising the strikers to do nothing that would get them into trouble.

ON TO WASHINGTON—J. S. COXEY, of Massillon, O.
General of the Army of the Commonweal.

tured to his troops. Coxey and Browne dismounted at the foot of the capitol steps and started up on foot. There was an interruption by the police. The blue coats charged, scattered the army and arrested Coxey and Browne. Both men were locked up, there being no serious trouble. The action of the police was not taken without warning. Coxey knew the programme last night. "I shall certainly make an attempt to speak, as I have promised," remarked Coxey, "and should the police disband the army as threatened a ruse will be resorted to. Instructions have been given the men to separate if ordered to do so by the police and go one by one or by twos and threes to the appointed spot near the steps of the east front of the capitol building. There I propose to make my address. After the meeting shall be adjourned we will go to our new rendezvous at the south of the capitol, where arrangements have been perfected for pitching camp."

Much of the curiosity concerning Coxey has died out. Although the army has been on exhibition all day the attendance has been smaller than it was at Cumberland. Things have been quiet all day in the camp at Brightwood. After their demonstra-

by police and will stop at Grand Crossing, just inside the limits tonight.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 30.—The Galvin army arrived here today in extremely good spirits.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—The Galvin army, numbering 200 men, headed by the Nineteenth Regiment band and cheered on all sides by thousands of people who had been attracted by the display, at 8 o'clock last night marched from Trades Assembly hall to the Union depot, where they took a passenger train for Benwood, W. Va. The money for their transportation, amounting to $250, was raised by public subscription. About thirty new recruits, mostly Columbus men, and more than half of them trades-unionists, joined the army and will go with it to Washington. The donations of food were sufficient to enable the men to cook their dinners.

GEN. FRY SCENTS TROUBLE.

He Fears Uncle Sam's Soldiers May Try to Scatter the Armies.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—It is possible that within a few days the industrial movement throughout the United States will be proclaimed by Secretary of War Lamont as treason-

tion to-day the commonweal soldiers will march to a vacant lot at Second and M streets, southwest, where they will pitch their tents, and the leaders announce that this will be the permanent camp of the army of peace until the good roads bills are passed by congress.

Answering the question, "You will attempt the capitol meeting in the face of official objection?" Coxey said: "Yes, and regardless of the law, minding only our constitutional rights." Asked as to whether he had received any encouragement from congress about the passage of his bills he replied: "I have not. Congress will not act until forced to."

Sergeant-at-arms of the Senate and Snow of the house were closeted with Coxey a quarter of an hour. These officials pointed

able and the different divisions be ordered to disband. Should the commanders of the various branches refuse to comply it is believed instructions will be sent to the United States army officers commanding the different departments to send out United States troops and arrest the leaders with their lieutenants and break up the camp. That such is the policy of the war department Gen. Fry of the Los Angeles army, in camp here, has little doubt. He believes that President Cleveland has determined to break up the Coxey armies before enough get to Washington to make trouble. The information came in the shape of an official communication from Major-General O. O. Howard, commanding the department of the east, desiring to be informed of the object of the march.

STRAPS AROUND LOCAL MAIL

String Costs the Government Too Much Money in the Long Run.

The post office department has put another economical scheme in practice in this city. When leaving the office the carriers have the mail for each street tied up in a package. Heretofore they have used string to tie up these packages, throwing the string away when the package was untied. Barrels of string were thus consumed in a short time, and the government finds it quite an expense. The new idea is the substitution of leather straps for strings. These straps are not unlike an ordinary shawl strap, having a small buckle at one end. They are furnished for each carrier and he is held responsible for their keeping. The straps are buckled around the packages, and when removed are fastened to the carrier's pouch, and are thus preserved an indefinite time.

"The government expects to save considerable money in this new move," said one of the local carriers. "I think it is a good move, the straps appear to be much handier than the string."

T. B. LEAHEY IN THE POSTOFFICE

He Succeeds Miss Mollie Bowles as Registry and Delivery Clerk.

Thomas B. Leahey to-day succeeded Miss Mollie G. Bowles as registry and delivery clerk in the Janesville post-office, this being the first change in the clerical force since Postmaster Wilson took charge of the office. Mr. Leahey is well qualified for the position to which he has been appointed. For many years he has been employed in the freight office of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, and is an expert accountant.

MAGAZINES OF THE MONTH.

Demorest's

There are many attractive features in the May number of Demorest's magazine. Gen. Lew Wallace, Gen. James Grant Wilson, George W. Cable, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Prof. H. H. Boyeson, and Gertrude Atherton give "Advice to Young Writers," every word of which, coming from such sources, is as valuable as gold, and the portrait of each is given with the advice. The paper on "Russian Home Industries" is superbly illustrated and eminently interesting. "The Transformation of the Ugly Club" is a unique article on modern facial surgery.

North American Review.

The North American Review for May opens with two timely articles on "The Way to Regulate Liquor Selling." The first by Governor Tillman, of South Carolina, is in the nature of a defence of his conduct during the recent liquor riots in that state, and is entitled "Our Whisky Rebellion." The second, which deals with "Successful Public-House Reform," is by the Right Rev. Francis John Jane, Bishop of Chester, who is well known in England as one of the leading advocates of the Gothenburg system.

Harper's Magazine.

"Eighty years young," said Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes when asked his age on a now famous birthday. For forty-four years Harper's New Monthly Magazine has kept abreast of the best art and the latest knowledge. It is new every month. Besides its articles on general topics, the May number contains six complete short stories, a generous installment of Mr. DuMaurier's novel, "Tribby," half a long story by James Lane Allen, and more pictures than the average illustrated book.

Scribner's.

Scribner's Magazine for May opens with an article of unusual importance, entitled "Some Episodes of Mountaineering," by Edwin Lord Weeks, describing some of his own stirring adventures, while mountain-climbing in the Alps with illustrations furnished by the same hand. The author and artist is equally skillful as a picturesque writer and an artist of rare ability, both in landscape and figure work.

Romance.

Eleven of the sixteen attractive stories which Romance presents in its May number are either written expressly for it or are original translations. Among these are the leading tale, a society story, in the fresh setting of Central Park in May, by Rhodes Macknight; and a group of three admirable specimens of the realistic style of fiction.

DIED AFTER COMING ACROSS THE OCEAN.

MRS. CAMPBELL TAKEN SICK
ON THE VOYAGE.

She Was Almost Helpless When Taken From the Cars at Lima and Passed Away Sunday—Doings of County People—Spring Work is Well Along.

LIMA, May 1.—Mrs. Campbell and daughter Maggie, mother and sister of Mrs. Nugent, arrived here from Ireland last Friday morning. Mrs. Campbell was taken from the cars sick with pneumonia, and died Sunday at the home of her daughter. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church Tuesday at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Bray. She was laid to rest in the Lima cemetery. Ezra Saxe and wife left Monday morning for a few days' visit with friends in Watertown. Carrie Johnson spent part of last week with Whitewater friends. Mrs. McDonald, who has been sick for the past two months, is still under the doctor's care, and fears are entertained of her recovery. W. F. Anderson made a trip to Fort Atkinson last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. George Charles, of Afton, Sunday with Lima friends. Mrs. Anderson has a sister from the northern part of the state visiting her. Little Nettie Freeman was five years old last Wednesday, and her mother helped her celebrate the day by giving a party to her little playmates. Refreshments were served and all had a nice time.

WEEK'S NEWS FROM MILTON.

MILTON, May 1.—James Brooks, of Hortonville, is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. W. Crane. Mr. Brooks is an old soldier and as a result of his army life is obliged to get about in a wheel chair, his legs being useless. Dr. Borden is able to be out again after a brief but severe illness. Mrs. W. P. Clarke has been appointed a member of the board of visitors to the Waukegan Soldiers' Home by the state department officials of the W. R. C. Mrs. John W. Vandewalker died Saturday night. Funeral arrangements not made at this writing. Ezra Davy is running the wagon repair shop on College street formerly occupied by Rood. Mrs. M. S. Baker, of Juneau, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. C. Monroe. William Davis and family, of Janesville, were the guests of Milton relatives Saturday. Dr. A. B. Woodard, of Wellville, N. Y., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Crandall last week. Mrs. Pickett, of Chicago, is stopping with Dr. Ella J. Crandall for a time. Mr. Monroe, of Cadott, visited his sister, Mrs. H. W. Rood, last week. The members of Company K, Thirtieth Wisconsin, who were in Janesville Thursday, were dined by their old commander, Captain Pliny Norcross. The late rains and warm weather are making vegetation grow rapidly, and some farmers are planting corn despite the fact that the "oak leaves are not as big as a squirrel's ear." E. W. Farnham, of Wichita, Kan., spent Saturday and Sunday with his uncle, Rev. E. D. Farnham. The gentleman was a student in Milton college many years ago. Major S. S. Rockwood of Portage will be a candidate for state superintendent before the republican convention and is the best man yet named for that office. Mrs. Will H. Borden of St. Paul, is the guest of Dr. W. H. Borden. Mrs. Louis Wolf, at the "six corners" presented her husband with a little son, being their first born.

Notes From Porter.

PORTER, May 1.—A traveling photographer passed through here last week taking teacher and pupils pictures at the schools. Arbor day was observed in all of our schools with exercises and in beautifying the school yard. Some of the smartest farmers are planting corn, but a number think it is too early. Bernie Farrington wears a genial smile as he says, it's a boy. Chris Ryan, of Evansville, was a caller on Friday. Miss Mamie Tracy is attending school in Janesville again this term. Miss Loie Fessender is learning dressmaking at the shop of Mrs. McKinney in Evansville. Miss Maggie Devine, of Edgerton, is staying with her sister here.

W. N. G. INSPECTOR COMING.

Janesville Militia Men Figuring on the Annual Inspection by Lieut. Buck.

The Janesville Light Infantry expect inspectors almost any time, as Lieutenant W. L. Buck, U. S. A., inspector of the Wisconsin National guard, has begun his official examination of the several companies in the state militia. He started with the Third regiment, his first inspection being of Co. C, at Hudson, Monday evening.

COOKSVILLE I. O. G. T. LECTURE.

Rev. W. Palmer Gives Interesting Discourse—Mrs. Fisher Near Death.

COOKSVILLE, May 7.—Rev. Mr. Palmer the Dist. Lecturer of I. O. G. T. gave us a fine lecture Friday evening, but owing to the rain in the afternoon very few were out. He remained over Sunday and gave a temperance sermon Sunday evening which was very much enjoyed. Mrs. J. P. VanVleck was very happily surprised by her sister, Mrs. Grace Love, of Iowa, last Wednesday. She came to remain all summer. Charlie Miller lost the best horse he had with the distemper. Mrs. Graves visited her daughters in Stoughton Friday and Saturday. Walter Speer was in Janesville a part of last week a witness in Dr. Roberts' damage suit. Newkirk & Franklin went to Chicago and purchased their blacksmith's tools; they have everything new and are good workmen we hope they will do well here. VanPatten & Newkirk have a new sign up on their meat market, and have painted the whole front of the building. Al Whaley has a new fence in front of his house. Mr. Forest has rented the Collins house and is fixing and cleaning it preparatory to moving in. His wife is in Chicago yet. It looks natural to see Isaac Porter around town. He was here the most of last week looking after his farm. Mrs. Fisher, an old-time resident, who is eighty-eight years old, is gradually failing. She lives alone and cannot be prevailed upon to live with any of her friends of whom she has many. Crops look very fine in this vicinity.

DARK LANTERN MAN CAUGHT AT 2 A. M.

ACHESON AND HOGAN MAKE A NIGHT RAID.

Two Hours Patrolling on Milton and Prospect Avenues Results in the Capture of the Mysterious Person Who Disturbed the Hawthorn Home Sunday night.

Chief Acheson and Patrolman Hogan had an exciting chase last night after the second ward dark lantern man, and they captured him. Determined if possible to rid the city of tough characters the two officers resolved last night to do some patrolling in the outskirts of the city. Mr. Graham's house on Milton avenue had been burglarized and Street Commissioner Hawthorn's home and others on the same avenue had been disturbed by a dark lantern. The officers therefore concluded they would patrol the second ward first and see for themselves what was going on. It was after one o'clock this morning when the two guardians, armed with heavy canes and revolvers found themselves up at the east end of Prospect avenue. Everything was still. Presently the chief whispered "There, see that dark lantern." The two officers strained their eyes in breathless silence as they watched the bull's eye cross and recross the street, as if dodging around a house some distance away from the officers.

"Now we will bag that fellow," whispered Hogan. The officers deployed in regular skirmishing order canes and revolvers in hand, advancing in double-quick order. They reached the first corner and saw the bull's eye was approaching, so they halted in the shadow of a gas lamp. The man with the dark lantern was coming rapidly, and the officers cocked their revolvers and held their canes with a firm grip. It was all over in a moment. The man with the bull's eye lantern came within the rays of the gas jet, when the officers discovered that it was carried by the second ward lamplighter who travels on a bicycle.

"Are you the chap that frightened Mrs. Hawthorn last night?" inquired Chief Acheson. "I don't know that I did. I passed by Mr. Hawthorn's house about 2 o'clock that night, and my bull's eye might have reflected in their house. You see I pass around two sides of that house, usually taking the sidewalk in wet times, and you can see how easy it would be for the light to enter with blinds open."

Acheson and Hogan lit a fresh cigar and declared the hunt off, both returning to their homes at 2:30 this morning.

STATE MONEY IS DEMANDED.

While the danger of an eruption of the bank currency of the ante-war period is not very great there can be no doubt that a serious attempt will be made to establish state banks of issue of some kind. Bills for this purpose have been introduced in the house by the conservative element of the democracy which would provide some safe-guards, which may command the support of many republicans and which may be favored by the president. There is no necessity, of course, for an increase in the volume of the circulating medium. Indeed, it is already far greater than the needs of business, as is shown by the immense hoards of idle cash in New York and other financial centers, but the sound-money faction of the democracy apparently thinks it necessary to make some concession to the other and dominant element of their party. The wise thing for congress to do is to postpone action on this bank currency question for a year or two and give its entire attention to the really pressing issues. But such considerations as wisdom and necessity do not always have much influence in dictating its course.

It might be well in some respects if King George III still ruled this country. He was no friend to cigarettes and knew his business when it came to looking after young men. An English paper brings us an account of the imprisonment of three youths for fourteen days apiece because they "neglected their health and threw themselves upon the town for treatment." The action was brought under one of King George's statutes which had been out of use for years.

There is not much use in arresting Coxeyites unless some of them are punished. The "generals" and "privates" who break the law should receive the penalty which the law decrees just like other bummers and cranks.

The republicans are well organized and energetically active everywhere, and the signs are all propitious for such a series of victories for their party as has not been known for twenty years.

The revival of another presidential boom is indicated by the fact that the Indiana republican convention neglected to congratulate Reed upon his recent notable triumph, and also forgot to mention McKinley.

There has never before been a time when so many democratic congressmen were impressed with the necessity of looking after their private affairs instead of seeking re-nominations.

And only to think that less than two short years ago our democratic friends were writing the obituary of the republican party!

NO TAX ON INTER-STATE TRADE
Important Ruling Of the Supreme Court as to Domestic Commerce.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—In the Supreme court yesterday in the case of J. W. Brennan, plaintiff in error, vs. The City of Titusville, in error to the Supreme court of Pennsylvania, the court decided that "no state can levy a tax on inter-state commerce in any form, whether by duties laid on transportation of the subjects of that commerce or on the receipts derived from that transportation, or on the occupation of carrying it on."

Precautions at the Capitol.
WASHINGTON, May 1.—Visible evidences of preparation for the Coxeyites were to be seen about the halls and corridors of congress yesterday. A double force of officers was on duty. Two men were in the main rotunda. Each of the main doors and the basement entrances had an officer. The lobbies immediately surrounding the senate and house were patrolled by the officers and the halls giving ingress to the congressional galleries were also patrolled.

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

Mrs. Cleveland's Friend.
Miss Helen R. Benedict, shares with Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., the distinction of being one of the best two whips of the fair sex in America. Miss Benedict is one of New York society's petted and distinguished belles. President Cleveland's intimacy with Miss Benedict's father, E. C. Benedict, a Wall street millionaire, has often been brought to the attention of the public. It will be remembered that it was aboard Mr. Benedict's yacht, the Onida, that the alleged surgical operation on the president's mouth was performed last summer. Miss Benedict is now abroad.

THE CITY IS RESPONSIBLE.

Railroad Officials So Notify Des Moines Council.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 1.—At a special meeting of the city council last evening a notice was presented by the division superintendent of the Chicago Great Western railroad notifying the city that the railroad would hold it responsible for any damage done to its property by the Kelly army. The city solicitor gave an opinion that the city would be required to protect the railroad property when it was shown it was endangered. The council voted to have a copy of the notice served on the county to establish its liability. The notice which was served by the Chicago & Great Western railway on the city council was also served on Gov. Jackson, on the United States marshal, and the county and city authorities. Supt. Egan said that the company feared an attempt would be made to capture one of its trains, and proposed to make certain that they would be protected. He stated also that the road would not carry the army except at regular passenger rates and that they would not run any special trains.

The council unanimously adopted a resolution instructing the mayor to inform Gen. Kelly that it was the desire of the city government that he move his army on at once.

The air has been full of rumors of a threatened tie-up on the Rock Island unless that road concluded to aid in getting the army out of Des Moines. The rumors are alternately denied and confirmed, and beyond the fact that all employees of the railroad are in full sympathy with the army, nothing definite can be learned. It is asserted that if force is used to compel the Kelly crowd to move on every wheel on the Rock Island will be stopped.

The army is still in camp at the old stove works and up to the present moment no indications of a speedy departure can be discovered. Gen. Kelly said the people of Des Moines were treating his men liberally and they had made no arrangements as yet for leaving. Kelly has been invited to address the students of Drake university to-day.

Iron Mountain Miners in Distress.

LANSING, Mich., May 1.—A committee of citizens of Iron Mountain, headed by Mayor Crowell, waited on Gov. Rich and laid before him the condition of the destitute miners of that place. The governor is opposed to calling an extra session of the legislature and at his suggestion the delegation went to Detroit to consult with the citizens' relief committee, appointed by him last winter, and with whom he had agreed not to call an extra legislative session until such committee had declared its inability to meet all demands.

TEN MEN FROM HERE JOINED GEN. COXEY.

JANESVILLE REPRESENTED IN THE COMMONWEAL.

Are Tramping With the Chicago Company—Grand Army Men Started From Janesville and Are Now Walking Through Indiana—John Abert Appointed Lieutenant.

Ten recruits to the Coxeys army went from this city.

They were all old soldiers and left at the end of the G. A. R. encampment. Fritz Janssen of Milwaukee was one of the party but has returned home. Mr. Janssen was a member of the Twenty-fourth Wisconsin regiment, which was first commanded by Colonel Larrabee and afterwards by Colonel Arthur McArthur. He told a reporter his story as follows:

"When the encampment at Janesville was over a party of members of the Grand Army—about a dozen in all—took the train to Chicago to join the Coxeys contingent. There were in the party, besides myself, Johnny Abert and Yankee Smith, members of the Robert Chivas post, and Adolph Goetzman, a member of the William Steimeyer post, and six others. We found when we reached Chicago that the army had left and marched to towards South Bend, Ind., and so we went there to join them. We found them there. They had slept in a coal shed and under the roof of heaven. It was a singular collection of men. Many of them had money in their pockets. There were in the division in which we enlisted 500 men, I should estimate, and there was another division ahead of that division.

Recruit From Here Got An Office.

"It was a very orderly gathering, however. They would not steal a train or steal anything from the farmers along the route. All the men were unarmed but they meant business. I could not tell whether there were many Grand Army men in the party, as they straggled along the road as our troops did in the days of the war. John Abert was appointed lieutenant of the division in which I was."

"The farmers turned out to help the army along, and brought their teams with them. As they left their homes their wives wanted to know when they would be back, and received evasive answers. Some of the farmers had two bags of oats in their wagons, and that meant they were to be gone two days. There were fully three hundred teams conveying that division along the Indiana roads. The farmers wanted to get them so far on their way that they could not get back, and so get rid of them.

"The reason I came back was the roads were too muddy. As long as the soil was sandy we got along all right, but as soon as we struck the clay beds of Indiana the pedestrians sunk in up to their knees, and it was too hard. I went with them for ten miles, and when we came to a station on the railroad I came back to Chicago and Milwaukee. John Abert wanted me to stay with him, but I told him if he wanted to go to Washington we should pay our fares and go that way. I told him there was nothing in it to walk to Washington. I believe he would have come back with me if he had not been appointed an officer. So I left him and the others going across Indiana. If they get to Cleveland they will get plenty of recruits."

Mr. Jansen is of the opinion that the Coxeys movement is more serious than the public generally believes, judging from the class of men that have joined the Chicago contingent.

F. M. MARZLUFF HAD TO HUSTLE.
No Argument For Democracy In The Case of This Shoe Factory.

Janesville democrats get a good deal of satisfaction out of the fact that F. M. Marzluff's factory hasn't shut down, despite free trade times.

"I am just as tickled about it as anybody," said Mr. Marzluff, "but it doesn't make me a free trader by a good deal. The only thing that has kept the factory going this year has been everlasting hustling. We never had to work as hard for trade before. Had this been an ordinary year the expense and effort we put into our road-work would have doubled our trade. Instead of doubling we will be in great luck if we play even. No more democratic administrations in mine."

Agnes Herndon Here Thursday.

The announcement that charming Agnes Herndon, in her great creation "La Belle Marie," will be here Thursday will be hailed with delight by our theater-going public. "La Belle Marie" has won for the fair actress fame and fortune, and today there are few attractions before the public that are receiving as liberal patronage and proving as large financial successes. The story is admirably worked out, and the story is full of wit, fun and strong climaxes, without ever descending to impossible situations and without a touch of coarseness.

A Fine Toned Instrument

A great many complimentary remarks have been passed by people who were in attendance at the G. A. R. entertainment last Thursday night, about the fine toned piano used. The piano was one of the best ever in a room. It filled the hall admirably and the richness of tone could not but be noticed. The instrument was the Colby make and is for sale only by D. W. Kollie, the west side jeweler.

THE Woman's Foreign Mission Circle of Court Street church meets at Mrs. E. Inman's 257 Prospect avenue tomorrow afternoon.

THE annual union men's party of locomotive engineers and firemen will occur to-night at the Light Infantry hall. Supper at Golling's.

SUPPER for the guests at the railroad men's party tonight will be served at the opera house restaurant. A free bus will run from the Armory.

FRED ROUSE, formerly in the employ of G. A. Shurtliff, bade good bye to his many Janesville friends yesterday, and started for his new home in Tallahassee, Alabama.

DON'T let it be said that you did not buy tickets for the hospital benefit opera, Pirates of Penzance. It is a beautiful opera and will be given in first class style.

J. D. HOLMES, the tailor man, will have a display of the handsomest shirts ever seen in Janesville on display Saturday. He went to Chicago to-day to get them.

THERE will be a free bus to the opera house restaurant from the armory tonight. Supper will be served in McDonald's best style, and preparations have been made so that a crowd can be accommodated.

AFTER May 1st, when you want a first-class sewing machine, go to Corn Exchange, in the Armory block. There you will find the two leaders, the Singer and the Domestic, and Peterson always makes the prices right.

THE third lecture of the E. L. lecture course will be delivered tonight by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Cole. Subject, "Matrimony." Everybody is cordially invited, especially old bachelors. Admission 20 cents, doors open 7:30.

THEY need a cow at the Oak Lawn hospital and the ladies hope to be able to buy one with the proceeds of the cake sale, to be held in the store formerly occupied by Hall & Hanson, opposite the post office, next Saturday. All ladies who wish to contribute cakes, pies, doughnuts or cookies to the good cause, will please leave them at the store by 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Every little helps and all contributions will be thankfully received.

OUR ladies 7-button shoes are made from the finest Paris kid stock, and are strictly hand-turned. No dealer in Janesville or elsewhere is selling a shoe like ours for less price than we quote on ours. No one knows this better than those who advertise an inferior shoe, made in imitation of our shoe at "one third" less than our price. They should cost one-third less; and pay a handsome profit at the price advertised. We never have endeavored to mislead the people by misrepresentation, believing that such methods cannot bring to any merchant a lasting benefit. We refer any doubting one to Marzluff & Co., who will verify our statement in reference to 7-button shoes. Becker & Woodruff, on the bridge.

ROBERTS GETS $100 FOR HIS INJURIES.

DOCTOR'S FALL NOT HEAVILY RECOMPENSED.

Former Evansville Man Faces Slimly in the Circuit Court—John T. Manning Sues Charles T. Wilcox For Damages to His Business—Game of Freeze Out.

Dr. W. P. Roberts, formerly of Janesville, now of Chicago, gets a judgment of one hundred dollars against the village of Evansville. One year ago last winter Dr. Roberts fell on an icy sidewalk in that village, sustaining injuries to his spine, and action was brought to recover personal damages. The case was on trial for three days, being given to the jury at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The verdict was announced at the opening of court this morning.

Quaker Wedding at Evansville.

Dr. Roberts is a Quaker and is a man possessing many peculiarities. Some years ago there was quite a sensation in Evansville over the wedding of the doctor, which was solemnized in a public hall according to Quaker rites and usages. This attracted considerable attention, and newspaper men from Chicago and Milwaukee were in attendance. Dr. Roberts is now secretary of the National Health Association, it being a society to raise funds to assist consumptives who wish to go to New Mexico and are not able to pay.

Game of Freeze-Out Alleged

The court is occupied hearing testimony in the case of John P. Manning against Charles T. Wilcox. Manning was a tenant of Wilcox, occupying one of the stores in the old Ogden block, and claims that he was forced out by Wilcox greatly to the injury of his business, he being engaged in the cigar and tobacco trade. The case will not conclude before tomorrow.

OAK HILL TO BE IMPROVED

Gang of Men at Work on the Cemetery Grounds

A force of five men are now at work beautifying the drives and grounds in Oak Hill cemetery, grading and sodding the property. The trustees held their regular monthly meeting this morning, and decided to do considerable work in this line this spring. They also desire lot owners to lend a helping hand by improving their private lots. This work can now be done by the regular force employed at reasonable expense. Sexton Scott submitted his report giving the interments for March and April as follows:
March 1—Fred Schultze, Janesville, aged 10 days.
March 6—Winslow H. Gilkey, Janesville, aged 4 months.
March 8—Nellie May Legge, Janesville, aged 1 year.
March 26—Mrs. Anna Knudson, Janesville, aged 81 years.
March 21—Richard F. Hawley, Janesville, aged 44 years.
March 23—Dorothy Clark, Nebraska, aged 62 years.
March 25—Charles H. Chase, town of Janesville, aged 44 years.
April 6—Gerta E. Marsden, Janesville, aged 1 year.
April 11—Mrs. Emily K. Graham, Milwaukee, aged 88 years.
April 13—Mrs. Sarah Golden, Janesville, aged 27 years.
April 16—August Lidke, Janesville, aged 63 years.
April 17—Rubin A. Smith, Janesville, aged 4 years.
April 20—Mrs. Anna Funk, Janesville, aged 37 years.

LOCAL CHAT AND COMMENT

Mrs. Mary Quinn.

Mrs. Mary Quinn, aged seventy years, died at her home 54 Lincoln street at 12:40 o'clock this morning. She had resided in Rock county for forty-seven years. She leaves six daughters to mourn her death, they being Mother M. Genevieve, a sister of Mercy at Independence, Iowa; Mrs. Edward Lay of Center; Mrs. Michael Hayes, Mrs. John Connors, Misses Annie and Jennie Quinn of this city. Her husband died three years ago.

Buggy Smashed in a Runaway.

A horse belonging to Morris Crall and driven by Jesse McAffrey took a lively run on North Jackson, Wall and River streets this morning, smashing the buggy on Wall street. The horse thus freeing itself, quickened its pace down River street until it reached Christman's grocery store, where it collided with a light phaeton, doing considerable damage to the vehicle.

Called To See a Sick Brother.

Dr. Thomas Taggart, of Cincinnati was in the city a few hours last evening en route to Evansville, where he had been summoned to see a sick brother. While he was in the city he visited his old friend, W. F. Williams, clerk of the municipal court, the two men having been schoolmates in their boyhood days.

Light Infantry in Good Shape.

The semi-annual muster of the Light Infantry took place at the Armory last evening. Forty-five members out of fifty-nine on the company's roll were present and in line, which was considered a first-class showing. The annual inspection will probably take place about week after next.

Switchman Hiller in Bad Shape

George Hiller, the switchman who got his leg hurt over a week ago, is compelled to use two crutches. He is deprived of the use of his limbs entirely. It is feared that there will be serious consequences owing to the great pain he suffers.

Bible Societies Not Relished.

Hitherto the English and American bible societies have enjoyed the privilege of circulating magazines and tracts and of maintaining traveling agents in Russia. But recently the various establishments at Kief and other large cities in the dominions of the czar have been closed by the police, the doors locked and sealed, and the employees ejected. Moreover, steps are now being taken to put a stop to the facilities which the societies have hitherto enjoyed in the exercise of their labors and in the extension of the sphere of their operations.

Trying to Escape.

"There!" said the young wife proudly, as she deposited the hot plate carefully on the table. "That's the first mince pie that I ever made without any help, alone myself." "So it is!" exclaimed her husband enthusiastically, looking it over critically meanwhile. "And as long as it is the very first, my dear, don't you think that, instead of cutting it, it would be nice to keep it for a souvenir? How would it do to have it framed?"

The Era of Muscle.

This is an athletic age. Everybody wants to be strong. The craze for it has well reached that stage—effects both sexes and even childhood. The pugilistic phase of this craze in young America is by no means a morally promising one. But it is one thing to be endowed with vigor and another to be endowed with muscle. Super muscularity is often induced by physical effort perious to health and calculated to shorten life. The vigor which means a regular and efficient discharge of the physical functions, is the first medium at which all may safely aim without causing ruptures or breaking blood vessels. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is largely conducive to a gain in vigor of this sort since it stimulates and assists digestion, promotes regular bilious secretion and keeps the bowels in order. Sleep, that grand recuperator of nervous vigor, is encouraged by it and it remedies neuralgia, rheumatic and kidney trouble.

MOVED THE INSANE TO NEW QUARTERS.

LONG LINE OF WAGONS LADEN WITH LUNATICS.

Seven Carryalls and Many Farm Wagons Full of the Johnstown Asylum Inmates Roll Away From the Poor Farm in a Strange Possession—Their New Home.

Seven carryalls and four farm wagons full of the insane inmates of Johnstown asylum moved in a fantastic procession this morning. Slowly they rolled through mud up to the hubs, country folk lining the roads and staring at the vacant-faced passengers. On each wagon was two or three guards but guards were little needed. There was no disturbance and the transfer of patients from Johnstown to the new asylum was effected without trouble.

As a precaution the wagons were held until all had been loaded, and then started across the country together. The "trusties" were put on top of the freight wagons, while the more unruly patients were assigned to carryalls.

By noon the transfer had been completed. The paupers were moved yesterday.

NO PIANO IS FINER THAN THE GAZETTE'S

SHAW PIANOS ARE STANDARD
THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

Everybody Who Has Examined the Instrument at S. C. Burnham & Co's Says the Things Said in Its Favor Were Justified—Conditions of the Contest.

Nothing but praise is heard for The Gazette piano. The Shaw instruments rank in the markets of the country just as Chickering's, Steinways and Knabes, the four occupying first place. Everybody who has seen the Gazette piano is enthusiastic in its praise. It has a pure ringing tone, and its action is very fine. These qualities are what would be expected of a Shaw piano and The Gazette made no mistake in choosing that instrument.

Friends of contestants show a lively interest in the success of their favorites and votes are coming in rapidly. New subscribers should be reported as fast as secured, but coupons should be tied in bundles of one hundred each and kept until the day the competition closes. Votes have been cast up to date, for the following candidates:

Baker, Bessie
Burford, Alice M.
Edredge, Rose B.
Fink, May
Foster, Lahlie
Gifford, Alice V.
Gibbs, Maria J.
Holt, Ellen
Hugett, Miss Olive.
Hayward, Minnie
Kenyon, Cora
Kastner, Alice
Loucks, Franc
McNeil, Anna
Peters, Nellie
Randall, Carrie M.
Wright, Ada V.

Names of other candidates will be added as fast as votes are received. Only bona fide candidates will be allowed. The rule that nobody is permitted to enter merely to represent an organized society will be strictly enforced.

From now until the contest closes a coupon will be printed in each issue of the Gazette.

1. Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the above ballot.

2. Cut the ballot out (trimming on the dotted lines.) Write in the name of your candidate and enclose same in an envelope addressed to Ballot Editor, Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

3. Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.

4. The lady who receives the largest number of votes will receive as good and beautiful a piano as the Shaw Piano Company can make.

5. The contest will close June 30, 1894. Piano will be delivered as soon as the counting of votes is completed.

6. Any person who will bring The Gazette one new subscriber paid in advance will be entitled to the following number of ballots:

New subscriber paid in advance one month, 100 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance two months, 250 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance six months, 900 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance one year, 2,000 votes.

Each new subscriber who pays in advance and casts the number of votes specified is also entitled, of course, to cut coupons from the paper from day to day and vote in the regular manner.

No person will be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

We will be square with you, you must be square with us. No person will be allowed to stop his paper on Monday and start it again Tuesday and claim the premium offered.

The polls will close at 9:00 p. m., June 30, but votes handed in before this will be duly credited. The contest will be conducted strictly "on the square." No partiality or unfair advantage will be taken or allowed in any case.

Thinks Oranges May Be Improved.

A scientist thinks that agricultural chemistry should teach how to make Florida oranges better. To this end he is now engaged in a chemical analysis of the different varieties grown upon different soils, etc., fed by different fertilizers, with the idea that he can do for oranges what the Frenchmen have done for pears and what the grape growers have done for grapes.

The orange grows wild all over tropical Asia, and is everywhere regarded as indigenous.

Catarrh
AND COLD IN THE HEAD
relieved instantly by one application of Birney's Catarrh Powder

REV. FATHER CLARKE, Sec'y to the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, writes:
Catarrhus—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic over it. The good states speak most encouragingly of their use of it in the Hospital under their care. I will do anything to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering.

M. E. FERGUSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes:
Catarrhus—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrhal Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch tick plainly, it being held in inches from my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve.

MEMORIES OF FORMER LIFE.

"I have a number of friends who have shadowy recollections of a previous existence upon this earth," said a theosophist to the Pittsburg Dispatch, supporting the doctrine of reincarnation. "You doubtless have also had experiences when an indefinable, vague remembrance of something or somebody which puzzled you and made you say, 'I'm sure I've seen that before.' Yet you may know pretty positively that, as far as this present existence is concerned, it was impossible for you to have received even an idea of the place or person. I have often met people with whom I became intimate at first sight. It seems, as I have often told them, that I had known them for years. It was only the other evening I met a lady from San Francisco whose face had been in my mind for years. As soon as we met there seemed to be something that drew us together. We were as old friends. The most remarkable instance I ever heard of is that of the daughter of Isaac Fulton. Twelve years ago he resided in Effingham county, Ill. While there he buried a daughter named Maria, who was taken away just as she was budding into womanhood. About a year later he removed to Dakota, where he still resides. About three years after his daughter's death he was blessed with another little girl, who was christened Nellie, it being the favorite name of his wife. When the little one became old enough to talk she persisted in calling herself Maria. She became quite angry when told her name was Nellie. She said the name belonged to her, as her parents used to call her Maria. A matter of business took Mr. Fulton back to Effingham county and for company he took Nellie along. The father was surprised at the intuitive knowledge the girl had of the place. She not only recognized the old home, but many people she had never seen, whom the first daughter had been acquainted with. About a mile from the home was a school house where Maria had gone to school. Little Nellie had never seen the place, yet she gave an accurate description of it to her father and expressed a strong desire to visit it. Accordingly her father took her out to the school house. As soon as she was inside she marched straight up to the desk her sister had occupied and said: 'This is mine.' In telling the story Mr. Fulton said that it seemed as if the dead had come back from the grave; but her mother would not have it so. She says, if that is true, she had but one child, and God gave her two.

The Rothschilds' Corner on News. The world has never quite understood how the Rothschilds got an "exclusive" on the result of the battle of Waterloo, and were thus able to bank on it ten hours before any other human being in London found it out. When Napoleon escaped from Elba the Rothschilds also managed to score an "exclusive," which they used most profitably on the stock exchange hours before even the government officials had the slightest inkling of the weighty news. And now again history repeats itself with this family, for in spite of all the newspaper enterprise in London, the Rothschilds got the first dispatch from Rio Janeiro announcing Admiral Benham's interference, and after they had extracted all the financial value out of it they gave it to the London papers. The famous Rothschilds family have founded all their wealth on "exclusives," always managing to be up a little earlier in the morning than the rest of the world upon occasions where fortunes are at stake. It is an historic instance of wonderful enterprise, united with even more wonderful luck.

HONESTY

IN THE CLOTHING BUSINESS IS NOT RARE WHEN YOU COME TO A FIRST-CLASS HOUSE.

We do not sell cheap clothing, in fact we don't want it. We cannot compete in price with the "ready made" dealer who advertises $20 suits for such ridiculously low prices, because it is almost an impossibility to give the buyer any value for his money.

The Clothing Sold by

ZIEGLER

Is the Best =

Because every garment is made by a first-class merchant tailor, a man who knows how to build good clothing and the buyer who pursues the policy of buying "ready-made" clothing because it is cheap pays more in the end than he who buys the best. The kind of clothing we sell you is the kind that has all the merits of style, finish and quality.

We sell the best made for less than you can buy the poorest at any other clothing house in Janesville. You no doubt wondered how we can do this. We will tell you. We are directly connected with the large concern of Browning, King & Co., the largest clothiers in the world. They have stores in all the large cities of the United States. They buy direct from the cloth and last year manufactured and sold $9,000,000 worth of clothing. Each house selects their own designs and patterns, and gets advantage of Browning, King & Co.'s low prices. Don't you think kind reader that a concern that handles $9,000,000 worth of clothing in a year can get better prices than one that handles $25,000 or $30,000? We pay the same prices as Browning, King & Co. We guarantee you that we buy our clothing from 15 to 25 per cent less than any clothier in Janesville. We sell you the best for the least money.

COXEY AND BROWNE
BY WASHINGTON POLICE.

No Measure in Dealing With the Procession of Unemployed at the Capitol—General Randall Leaves Chicago With 450 Men, Escorted By Police.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Coxey's army marched to the capitol today—a ragged, seedy, draggled lot. Very different the broken file of four hundred tramps looked from the fifty thousand the Massillon leader had promised. Very different the reception from what the Ohio horse-trader had pic-

cerning meetings and processions in the capitol grounds, and in reply to his objections that the law was unconstitutional they told him that they were here to execute the law and not to construe it.

Chief of Police O'Mara of Pittsburg is in consultation with Major Moore. A score of out-of-town detectives from principal cities are in Washington.

Twenty mounted policemen patrol the country in which the Coxey camp is located. They are in command of a sergeant, and will take into custody any one violating any regulations of the district.

COAL MEN AND REND
DON'T GO TOGETHER

OPERATORS REPUDIATE OFFERS FOR A COMPROMISE.

Indiana and Illinois Coal Men Will Have Nothing to Do With an Interstate Agreement Regulating Prices—Toluca Mines Shut Down Tight—Trouble Feared in Ashland

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1.—The manifesto of Col. W. P. Rend, the Chicago coal operator, for a settlement of the miners' strike was issued to the other operators last night. They would not agree to a conference. They seem determined to win the fight. Operators in Indiana and Illinois declared they would have nothing to do with an interstate agreement fixing the price of labor.

The coal supply through Pennsylvania is growing smaller. The Sligo bar iron mill has closed down on account of no fuel. The coal supply in any of the mills can not last over two weeks, and gas is too scarce to allow its general use. On the Allegheny Valley railway old railroad ties are being cut up into billets to allow their being burned in the locomotives.

The strikers at Washington Run had a fight with the deputy sheriffs last night. One of them was badly used up. When he got back to the strikers' camp and reported what happened his companions started with sticks of dynamite for the building where the deputies are lodged. They intended to wreck it with the dynamite, but the leaders succeeded in getting the explosives away from them.

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 1.—General Manager Ferris of the Ohio Central has issued an order to cut the pay of all salaried men 33 1/2 per cent, beginning May 1. Mr. Ferris says it is a temporary reduction, rendered necessary by the coal strike, as half the road's business is coal traffic. It is understood a cut will soon be made on the Hocking Valley.

John McBride Has His Say.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—John McBride, yesterday, after reading the statement of Col. Rend's son to the effect that if the coal operators did not soon agree among themselves and send their men to work he would start up his mines, said: "Before Col. Rend can set his men to work at the advance in wages which is asked he must first secure the consent of the men. There are hundreds of operators ready and willing to begin work and to pay the price for mining which is asked by the miners' association if the men were willing to return to work. What they desire is fair treatment of the miners and fair treatment by all operators toward each other."

TOLUCA MINES CLOSED TIGHT.

Fear They Will Not Be Protected Said to Have Scared Workmen.

TOLUCA, Ill., May 1.—Toluca mines closed last evening. The miners held a meeting Saturday evening and decided to go to work, but Sunday they held another and decided to quit until all the mines resume. The colored miners have joined interests with the white miners. The mines of all Northern Illinois are now closed except two, one at Streator and one at La Salle, the Mattheisson & Higler Zinc company. The miners at Spring Valley voted to permit no company mines to work at all.

PANA, Ill., May 1.—Great apprehension is felt here on account of the report that the miners from the Springfield district are on their way to Pana to force out the miners at work there. Trouble is feared, for there is great opposition to the strike at this place.

ROCKFORD, Ill., May 1.—Many manufacturing concerns here will be compelled to shut down unless the exhausted supply of soft coal is speedily replenished by the strikers going to work.

LINCOLN, Ill., May 1.—The 200 miners in this city have quit work and will await the result of the general strike before resuming.

CENTRALIA, Ill., May 1.—The 400 miners employed in the two mines here will come out and join in the strike. Sandoval miners have voted against going out.

CARLYLE, Ill., May 1.—Five hundred miners struck between here and East St. Louis yesterday.

UNDER UNCLE SAM'S PROTECTION.

Wisconsin Central Will Put Upper Dockmen at Work.

ASHLAND, Wis., May 1.—The Wisconsin Central proposes to take a hand in the fight against the striking upper dockmen. It is proposed to commence on the dock to-day with men who will work for $1.35 days and $1.45 nights. The Wisconsin Central has Uncle Sam at its back and has published a manifesto stating the fact. United States Marshal Main says he will have twenty deputy marshals with him at the dock.

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 1.—The Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic has agreed to contract to trim vessels at 2 1/2 cents a ton and leave the employment of men and the choice of foremen to the executive committee. This ends the strike.

OMAHA, Neb., May 1.—The three carpenters' and joiners' unions of Omaha have decided to ask May 1 that eight hours shall constitute a day's work. This is now a nine hour city. President Gascoigne says thirty days the union will demand 30 cents an hour.

GREEK EARTHQUAKE
TAKES 500 LIVES.

ANOTHER SHOCK SPREADS AWFUL DESOLATION.

Towns in Ruins and Hosts of People Dead—The Disaster a Repetition of That One Week Ago—Accident Costs Many Lives in Brahilov, Roumania.

ATHENS, May 1.—Another earthquake shook Greece this morning. From every hand reports are coming in of villages destroyed and cities in ruins. The disaster was preceded by tremblings of the earth that gave enough warning so many were prepared and fled to the open country, but the list of the dead will reach fully five hundred.

BRAHILOV, Roumania, May 1.—A terrible accident occurred here yesterday. While the pier was crowded with people in holiday attire, bound for Galitz, on the Danube, waiting for the steamer which was to convey them to that place, the pier gave way and threw about one hundred and twenty people into the water. Many of the excursionists are believed to have been drowned.

HOT DEBATE IN THE SENATE

Bitter Animosity Is Aroused in the Discussion of the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Senator Harris, who is in charge of the tariff bill, lost patience yesterday at the way in which progress was impeded by Senator Hale in the morning hour. As on several preceding days Mr. Hale objected to giving way for special measures in the morning hour. Finally Mr. Harris abruptly moved that the senator proceed with the consideration of the tariff bill. This at once caused a sharp discussion as to the manner in which the bill was to be debated and when the amendments were to be introduced. It lasted until Mr. Allen (pop. Neb.) threw "senatorial courtesy" to the winds and demanded the regular order. The tariff bill was then laid before the senate.

Mr. Aldrich renewed his comments on the Carlisle interview. In reply to a remark by Mr. Vest that Mr. Aldrich had been falsely informed concerning the proposed amendments to the tariff and if these statements were repeated it must be on his own responsibility. Mr. Aldrich accepted the challenge, with the statement on his lips that he was "informed and believed that amendments had been prepared to the bill since it had been reported to the senate, as he had previously stated." He asserted that amendments were in print and said it was his understanding that they were to be submitted to the senate shortly.

Mr. Mills (dem., Tex.) followed in a brief, sharp speech, in which he denied that the bill had been improperly prepared and reported.

Mr. Palmer remarked that it was not necessary or expected that a bill should be perfected in committee; as for himself he had not given a power of attorney to any one.

Senator Voorhees replied to the speech made by Senator Sherman last Saturday, and quoted a long paragraph from the Ohio senator's speech, in which he said that the finance committee had not had opportunity to consider the pending tariff bill in the usual way. He took special exception to a sentence in Mr. Sherman's speech, reading, "this bill has never been considered by the finance committee." He asserted the tariff bill had been reported to the full finance committee March 8 and had not been reported by the committee to the senate until March 20.

Senator Sherman, in reply, said the bill was never read in detail to permit changes. If it had been and votes had been taken a more satisfactory measure might have been presented. Mr. Sherman repeated that there was no opportunity for consideration until the democratic majority had agreed upon changes.

After Mr. Harris Mr. Voorhees insisted that the Record showed the bill had been considered in every detail from end to end and that the minority had ample opportunity to offer amendments. He called particular attention to Mr. Aldrich's motion made in committee to strike out the income tax feature. "I desire to say right here," said he, commenting on this motion, "no matter what rumors may be floating in the air, that the income tax will stay in this bill."

A few minutes afterward an incident occurred which created a profound sensation. Senator Turpie of Indiana, in a most bitter and searing speech, denounced Senator Aldrich for his attack on the action of the committee. The speech certainly strained senatorial courtesy to the utmost limit, and created intense excitement in the chamber. Mr. Aldrich answered quietly and briefly, and the incident closed without another word. Mr. Quay resuming the prepared speech he began some weeks ago. A motion to go into executive session developed the absence of a quorum and at 4:30 the senate adjourned.

To Pension Letter Carriers.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Congressman Goldzier has introduced a bill in congress to provide for the relief of aged and disabled letter carriers by the establishment of a letter carrier's relief fund, which fund shall be composed of assessments levied upon the regular salary of all letter carriers engaged in the service. He proposes to withhold a sum equal to 1 per cent per annum of the amount of each letter carrier's salary to be devoted to this purpose. He provides that the fund so raised shall be applied to the relief of any carrier who, in the line of duty, shall be permanently injured or disabled, mentally or physically (if such disability is not the result of his own vicious habits), so as to incapacitate him for the performance of further duty in the service. If an employee of the first class in the mail service receives a permanent injury he is to receive $500 per annum; if of the second class $400; and if of the third class $300 per annum.

WANT TIME EXTENDED.

Chinese of San Francisco Concerned About the Registration Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 1.—The Chinese six companies held a big meeting here last night and again petitioned their minister at Washington to memorialize congress for a further extension of time for registration under the McCrea act. Unless their prayer is granted the registration books will close on Thursday next. The Chinese call attention to the fact that every incoming steamer brings many Chinese, whose sole purpose in returning is to register, and that on the steamer Oceanic, which arrived here Saturday, there over 500 Chinese who want to register, many of whom will not be permitted by the custom officers to come ashore before that time has expired.

Officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children have arrested Ching Say, a Clay street merchant, for damaging his daughter's feet to keep them from growing. The officers intend to make a test case, and, if successful, to prosecute other Chinese offenders.

BOMBS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Many Buildings Violently Shaken Up by an Explosion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 1.—An attempt was made with dynamite to wreck a restaurant on Mission street, near Twenty-eighth. Not much damage was done, however, though the report could be heard nearly a mile and buildings in the immediate vicinity were violently shaken. The restaurant is kept by two Slavonians, and it is believed by the police that the explosion was planned by a Slav, to whom they sold another restaurant, some time since.

Star Rubber Mortgage Is Valid.

TRENTON, N. J., May 1.—Vice-Chancellor Bird has rendered a decision in the famous Star Rubber company litigation, sustaining as valid mortgages for nearly $400,000, made by the directors of the company in favor of themselves and three Trenton banks, and recorded at midnight in January, 1891, to secure indorsements and cash advancements, three days before the concern went into the hands of a receiver.

Trying to Settle the Strike.

ST. PAUL, May 1.—"We expect to win this fight within forty-eight hours," was the way President Debs stated his views yesterday. He said he made the statement on the authority of the general manager of another road, who told him that Mr. Hill would grant the demanded advance to all remaining classes of employes within that time. Passenger trains were sent out as usual here, except that the Breckinridge train was held one hour to take on 100 deputies for that point. Everything is quiet in the yards here. A conference is now in session in Minneapolis between Mr. Debs and representatives of the commercial bodies of the two cities looking to settlement by arbitration.

Ready for Annual A. P. A. Meeting.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 1.—The supreme officers of the A. P. A. in the world, have arrived in Des Moines for the meeting to-morrow. Among the most important actions that will be taken by the council at its session in Des Moines will be the promulgation of a platform for declarations with reference to the indiscriminate foreign immigration.

Senator Stockbridge Dead.

CHICAGO, May 1.—United States Senator Francis B. Stockbridge of Michigan died at 7 o'clock last evening at the home of his nephew in this city. The end came unexpectedly. Although he had been ill for several weeks his condition was not thought critical and his death came as an unusually severe blow to his wife and friends.

Hoosier Elections To-Day.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—Elections will be held in all incorporated cities in Indiana to-day. The campaigns have been the most enthusiastic of any spring elections held in this state in years.

FROM A MOB'S ROPE
DANGLED WILSON.

MURDERER OF AN IOWA POLICEMAN LYNCHED.

Missouri Valley People Take From Jail the Burglar Who Killed Their City Marshal and String Him Up—Very Little Resistance Offered By the Sheriff.

MISSOURI VALLEY, Iowa, May 1.—Wilson, the burglar, who shot the city marshal here Saturday, was lynched early this morning. The mob seemed to have no particular organization but accomplished its purpose easily through its determination not to be balked. Officers were powerless, although not disposed to endanger any lives in defending the prisoner.

Crooked Juror Sent to Jail.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—Juror Alvis Armstrong, who offered to hang the jury in the bank cases for $5,000, was tried for contempt of court and sentenced by Judge Baker to eighteen months without labor in the penitentiary at Michigan City. Frank Stannard, the go-between, who, with Armstrong, was also under $4,000 bonds for a conspiracy to corrupt the Federal jury, was held to the grand jury and admitted on bail.

Threatens to Kill Breckinridge.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 1.—A communication postmarked New York has been received by the postmaster at Paris, Ky., asking him to warn the authorities that if Col. Breckinridge is allowed to speak there he will be shot down and the building blown up with dynamite. The letter writer says he is a Kentuckian.

TORE UP THE TRACKS.

Chicago Gets the Best of the Lake Shore Railroad Company.

CHICAGO, May 1.—The bitter contest between the city and the Lake Shore railroad came to a violent climax in the drawing of spikes, the displacement of rails and ties and the throwing of dirt by a band of 200 laborers employed by the city and protected by nearly one hundred policemen from Hyde Park and Englewood.

If the railway company should resort to violent measures it will meet with a hot reception, as the police have their war paint on and are under command of Inspector Hunt and Captain Aldrich. Every move on the part of the city has been personally directed by Mayor Hopkins, who declares that he is in the fight to stay and that the railroad will pay dearly for the violated faith with the city officers.

HATTIE BLAINE WEDS.

Becomes Mrs. Truxton Beale at Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Very quietly and in the presence of their intimate personal friends, Truxton Beale, ex-minister to Persia, and Harriet Blaine, daughter of the late Secretary Blaine, were married at the Blaine family residence on Lafayette square at 1 o'clock yesterday. The Rev. Dr. Hamlin, pastor of the Presbyterian church of the Covenant, performed the ceremony. Edward Woolston of New York was the best man and there were no bridesmaids. There was an entire absence of show or ceremony about the wedding.

Ball's Body Found in the Woods.

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., May 1.—The body of Peter Ball, who disappeared from Plymouth seven weeks ago, has been found in the woods near Wausau by an Indian. He left his name written on a log, and besides giving business instructions to his wife in a letter stated that his death was caused by sickness and starvation.

A Battle With Icebergs.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 1.—After a twenty-one days' storm of unusual severity the Allan line steamship Corean, in charge of Capt. Main, has arrived at this port bearing marks of a long battle with icebergs and ice floes, from which the iron vessel barely escaped.

Paris Forbids Parades.

PARIS, May 1.—The police authorities express confidence that there will be no disorder in the city May day to-day. They have announced that lectures, banquets, and the like will not be interfered with, but that mass-meetings and processions will not be permitted.

Forming Coxey Army Home Reserves.

DENVER, Colo., May 1.—Ten thousand men are said to be already enrolled in the Coxey army home reserve in Colorado. The force in Denver numbers 1,200. Gov. Waite cordially indorses the movement.

Painters on Strike.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Twenty-five hundred painters, or half the entire number belonging to the Painters' union in this city, struck work yesterday. This step was taken as a result of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators of America held Sunday.

Climbing Army's Allot.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, May 1.—There was a continuation of testimony tending to establish an alibi in the Ramsey case yesterday. Witness Bentley was recalled and said that Witness Smith represented Ramsey as advising the strikers to do nothing that would get them into trouble.

ON TO WASHINGTON—J. S. COXEY, of Massillon, O.
General of the Army of the Commonweal.

tured to his troops. Coxey and Browne dismounted at the foot of the capitol steps and started up on foot. There was an interruption by the police. The blue coats charged, scattered the army and arrested Coxey and Browne. Both men were locked up, there being no serious trouble. The action of the police was not taken without warning. Coxey knew the programme last night. "I shall certainly make an attempt to speak, as I have promised," remarked Coxey, "and should the police disband the army as threatened a ruse will be resorted to. Instructions have been given the men to separate if ordered to do so by the police and go one by one or by twos and threes to the appointed spot near the steps of the east front of the capitol building. There I propose to make my address. After the meeting shall be adjourned we will go to our new rendezvous at the south of the capitol, where arrangements have been perfected for pitching camp."

Much of the curiosity concerning Coxey has died out. Although the army has been on exhibition all day the attendance has been smaller than it was at Cumberland. Things have been quiet all day in the camp at Brightwood. After their demonstra-

by police and will stop at Grand Crossing, just inside the limits tonight.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 30.—The Galvin army arrived here today in extremely good spirits.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—The Galvin army, numbering 200 men, headed by the Nineteenth Regiment band and cheered on all sides by thousands of people who had been attracted by the display, at 8 o'clock last night marched from Trades Assembly hall to the Union depot, where they took a passenger train for Benwood, W. Va. The money for their transportation, amounting to $280, was raised by public subscription. About thirty new recruits, mostly Columbus men, and more than half of them trades-unionists, joined the army and will go with it to Washington. The donations of food were sufficient to enable the men to cook their dinners.

GEN. FRY SCENTS TROUBLE.

He Fears Uncle Sam's Soldiers May Try to Scatter the Armies.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—It is possible that within a few days the industrial movement throughout the United States will be proclaimed by Secretary of War Lamont as treason-

tion to-day the commonweal soldiers will march to a vacant lot at Second and M streets, southwest, where they will pitch their tents, and the leaders announce that this will be the permanent camp of the army of peace until the good roads bills are passed by congress.

Answering the question, "You will attempt the capitol meeting in the face of official objection?" Coxey said: "Yes, and regardless of the law, mind only our constitutional rights." Asked as to whether he had received any encouragement from congress about the passage of his bills he replied: "I have not. Congress will not act until forced to."

Sergeant-at-arms of the Senate and Snow of the house were closeted with Coxey a quarter of an hour. These officials pointed

able and the different divisions be ordered to disband. Should the commanders of the various branches refuse to comply it is believed instructions will be sent to the United States army officers commanding the different departments to send out United States troops and arrest the leaders with their lieutenants and break up the camp. That such is the policy of the war department Gen. Fry of the Los Angeles army, in camp here, has little doubt. He believes that President Cleveland has determined to break up the Coxey armies before enough get to Washington to make trouble. The information came in the shape of an official communication from Major-General O. O. Howard, commanding the department of the east, desiring to be informed of the object of the march.

STRAPS AROUND LOCAL MAIL

String Costs the Government Too Much Money in the Long Run.

The post office department has put another economical scheme in practice in this city. When leaving the office the carriers have the mail for each street tied up in a package. Heretofore they have used string to tie up these packages, throwing the string away when the package was untied. Barrels of string were thus consumed in a short time, and the government finds it quite an expense. The new idea is the substitution of leather straps for strings. These straps are not unlike an ordinary shawl strap, having a small buckle at one end. They are furnished each carrier and he is held responsible for their keeping. The straps are buckled around the packages, and when removed are fastened to the carrier's pouch, and are thus preserved an indefinite time. "The government expects to save considerable money in this new move," said one of the local carriers. "I think it is a good move, the straps appear to be much handier than the string."

T. B. LEAHEY IN THE POSTOFFICE

He Succeeded Miss Mollie Bowles as Registry and Delivery Clerk.

Thomas B. Leahy to-day succeeded Miss Mollie G. Bowles as registry and delivery clerk in the Janesville post-office, this being the first change in the clerical force since Postmaster Wilson took charge of the office. Mr. Leahy is well qualified for the position to which he has been appointed. For many years he was employed in the freight office of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, and is an expert accountant.

MAGAZINES OF THE MONTH.

Demorest's

There are many attractive features in the May number of Demorest's magazine. Gen. Lew Wallace, Gen. James Grant Wilson, George W. Cable, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Prof. H. H. Boysson, and Gertrude Atherton give "Advice to Young Writers," every word of which, coming from such sources, is as valuable as gold, and the portrait of each is given with the advice. The paper on "Russian Home Industries" is superbly illustrated and eminently interesting. "The Transformation of the Ugly Club" is a unique article on modern facial surgery.

North American Review.

The North American Review for May opens with two timely articles on "The Way to Regulate Liquor Selling." The first by Governor Tillman, of South Carolina, is in the nature of a defence of his conduct during the recent liquor riots in that state, and is entitled "Our Whisky Rebellion." The second, which deals with "Successful Public-House Reform," is by the Right Rev. Francis John Kane, Bishop of Chester, who is well known in England as one of the leading advocates of the Gothenburg system.

Harper's Magazine.

"Eighty years young," said Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes when asked his age on a now famous birthday. For forty-four years Harper's New Monthly Magazine has kept abreast of the best art and the latest knowledge. It is new every month. Besides its articles on general topics, the May number contains six complete short stories, a generous installment of Mr. DeMaunier's novel, "Tilly," half a long story by James Lane Allen, and more pictures than the average illustrated book.

Scribner's Magazine.

Scribner's Magazine for May opens with an article of unusual importance, entitled "Some Episodes of Mountaineering," by Edwin Lord Weeks, describing some of his own stirring adventures, while mountain-climbing in the Alps with illustrations furnished by the same hand. The author and artist is equally skillful as a picturesque writer and an artist of rare ability, both in landscape and figure work.

Romance.

Eleven of the sixteen attractive stories which Romance presents in its May number are either written expressly for it or are original translations. Among these are the leading tale, a society story, in the fresh setting of Central Park in May, by Rhodes Macknight; and a group of three admirable specimens of the realistic style of fiction.

DIED AFTER COMING ACROSS THE OCEAN.

MRS. CAMPBELL TAKEN SICK ON THE VOYAGE.

She Was Almost Helpless When Taken From the Cars at Lima and Passed Away Sunday—Doings of County People—Spring Work is Well Along.

LIMA, May 1.—Mrs. Campbell and daughter Maggie, mother and sister of Mrs. Nugent, arrived here from Ireland last Friday morning. Mrs. Campbell was taken from the cars sick with pneumonia, and died Sunday at the home of her daughter. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church Tuesday at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Bray. She was laid to rest in the Lima cemetery. Ezra Saxe and wife left Monday morning for a few days' visit with friends in Watertown. Carrie Johnson spent part of last week with Whitewater friends. Mrs. McDonald, who has been sick for the past two months, is still under the doctor's care, and fears are entertained of her recovery. W. F. Anderson made a trip to Fort Atkinson last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. George Charles, of Afton, Sundayed with Lima friends. Mrs. Anderson has a sister from the northern part of the state visiting her. Little Nettie Freeman was five years old last Wednesday, and her mother helped her celebrate the day by giving a party to her little playmates. Refreshments were served and all had a nice time.

WEEK'S NEWS FROM MILTON.

Mrs. W. P. Clarke a Member of the Waupaca Board of Visitors.

MILTON, May 1.—James Brooks, of Hortonville, is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. W. Crane. Mr. Brooks is an old soldier and as a result of his army life is obliged to get about in a wheel chair, his legs being useless. Dr. Borden is able to be out again after a brief but severe illness. Mrs. W. P. Clarke has been appointed a member of the board of visitors to the Waupaca Soldiers' Home by the state department officials of the W. R. C. Mrs. John W. Vandewalker died Saturday night. Funeral arrangements not made at this writing. Ezra Davy is running the wagon repair shop on College street formerly occupied by Rood. Mrs. M. S. Baker, of Juneau, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. C. Monroe. William Davis and family, of Janesville, were the guests of Milton relatives Saturday.

Dr. A. B. Woodard, of Wellville, N. Y., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Crandall last week. Mrs. Pickett, of Chicago, is stopping with Dr. Ella J. Crandall for a time. Mr. Monroe, of Cadott, visited his sister, Mrs. E. W. Rood, last week. The members of Company K, Thirtieth Wisconsin, who were in Janesville Thursday, were dining by their old commander, Captain Pliny Norcross. The late rains and warm weather are making vegetation grow rapidly, and some farmers are planting corn despite the fact that the "oak leaves are not as big as a squirrel's ear." E. W. Farnham, of Wichita, Kan., spent Saturday and Sunday with his uncle, Rev. E. D. Farnham. The gentleman was a student in Milton college many years ago. Major S. S. Rockwood of Portage will be a candidate for state superintendent before the republican convention and is the best man yet named for that office. Mrs. Will H. Borden of St. Paul, is the guest of Dr. W. H. Borden. Mrs. Louis Wolf, at the "six corners" presented her husband with a little son, being their first born.

SHOPIRE CHURCH CELEBRATES.

Congregational Society Mark the Flight of Time—Robert Dole Injured.

SHOPIRE, May 1.—The anniversary celebration of the Congregational church last week, was well attended, and all enjoyed themselves, meeting old friends from whom they had been separated for years. On Saturday noon dinner was served in the chapel to all. The tables were spread with the best the ladies of the vicinity could prepare, and all know from past experience that we have some pretty good cooks. The decorations were of choice flowers. A photograph was taken of all present. All those interested in Decoration day exercises will meet at Fraternity hall, Wednesday evening, May 24, at half-past seven o'clock sharp. By order of committee. Robert Dole had the misfortune to dislocate his shoulder and while handling last week a coil, threw it out again. Mrs. Thomas Holmes and granddaughter, after spending the winter in Janesville have returned home. A good many from abroad visited this place last week to attend the celebration at the church. This town was well represented at the department encampment at Janesville last week. Charles Rice, having been appointed road commissioner for the north part of the town, will commence work as soon as the weather will permit. Rev. R. K. Manion delivered a very interesting sermon to a large audience at the Congregational church Sunday evening last.

DEMOCRATIC HOUSES FOR LEAF.

Magnolia Farmers Sell at Rising Figures—Early Crops Prosper.

MAGNOLIA, May 1.—Frank Clifford and Charles Emmons have sold their crops of tobacco at democratic prices. G. Howard's house is improving in looks with a new coat of paint. Wren Worthing is doing the work. Henry Johanna has bought Mrs. Seger's place and taken possession. Hans

Hanson is an early gardner. He has potatoes up and growing fast. George Bahris drilling a well at the creamery. Mrs. Edith Whaley of Evansville has been visiting her parents here. Our school in District No. 3 commenced last Monday morning. Miss Alice Clifford officiating as teacher. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Howard and little Zora spent Saturday and Sunday in Brooklyn, the guests of B. Johnson and wife.

COOKSVILLE I. O. G. T. LECTURE.

Rev. W. Palmer Gives Interesting Discourse—Mrs. Fisher Near Death.

COOKSVILLE, May 7.—Rev. Mr. Palmer, the Dist. Lecturer of I. O. G. T. gave us a fine lecture Friday evening, but owing to the rain in the afternoon very few were out. He remained over Sunday and gave a temperance sermon Sunday evening which was very much enjoyed. Mrs. J. P. VanVleck was very happily surprised by her sister, Mrs. Grace Love, of Iowa, last Wednesday. She came to remain all summer. Charlie Miller lost the best horse he had with the distemper. Mrs. Graves visited her daughters in Stoughton Friday and Saturday. Walter Speer was in Janesville a part of last week a witness in Dr. Roberts' damage suit. Newkirk & Franklin went to Chicago and purchased their blacksmith's tools; they have everything new and are good workmen we hope they will do well here. VanPatten & Newkirk have a new sign up on their meat market, and have painted the whole front of the building. Al Whaley has a new fence in front of his house. Mr. Forest has rented the Collins house and is fixing and cleaning it preparatory to moving in. His wife is in Chicago yet. It looks natural to see Isaac Porter around town. He was here the most of last week looking after his farm. Mrs. Fisher, an old-time resident, who is eighty-eight years old, is gradually failing. She lives alone and cannot be prevailed upon to live with any of her friends of whom she has many. Crops look very fine in this vicinity.

BURGLARS AROUND JOHNSTOWN.

The Town Line Visited by Many Midnight Raiders—Marauders.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN, May 1.—Burglars have been on the town line within the last few weeks. Several houses have been entered and clothing and provisions stolen. Mrs. George Roe and daughter Grace dined with their cousins Carrie and Allie Johnson last Sunday. Covenant meetings at the church next Saturday at 3 p. m. Mrs. A. E. Cary had the misfortune to fall last week, while helping at the parsonage, and is laid aside farm work for the present. Mrs. Will Bishop leads the A. C. F. meeting next Sunday evening. George Roe has recently purchased a new organ for his new daughters, Grace and Genie. Teasard Osborn, who resides in Marquette county, is visiting his brother, H. R. Osborn. Mr. Sturdevant has recently purchased a nice double carriage.

Notes From Porter.

PORTER, May 1.—A traveling photographer passed through here last week taking teacher and pupils pictures at the schools. Arbor day was observed in all of our schools with exercises and in beautifying the school yard. Some of the smartest farmers are planting corn, but a number think it is too early. Bernie Farrington wears a genial smile as he says, it's a boy. Chris Ryan, of Evansville, was a caller on Friday. Miss Mamie Tracy is attending school in Janesville again this term. Miss Loie Fessender is learning dressmaking at the shop of Mrs. McKinney in Evansville. Miss Maggie Devine, of Edgerton, is staying with her sister here.

E. W. N. C. INSPECTOR COMING.

Janesville Militia Men Figuring on the Annual Inspection by Lieut. Buck.

The Janesville Light Infantry expect inspectors almost any time, as Lieutenant W. L. Buck, U. S. A., inspector of the Wisconsin National guard, has begun his official examination of the several companies in the state militia. He started with the Third regiment, his first inspection being of Co. C, at Hudson, Monday evening.

DARK LANTERN MAN CAUGHT AT 2 A. M.

ACHESON AND HOGAN MAKE A NIGHT RAID.

Two Hours Patrolling on Milton and Prospect Avenues Results in the Capture of the Mysterious Person Who Disturbed the Hawthorn Home Sunday night.

Chief Acheson and Patrolman Hogan had an exciting chase last night after the Second ward dark lantern man, and they captured him. Determined if possible to rid the city of tough characters the two officers resolved last night to do some patrolling in the outskirts of the city. Mr. Graham's house on Milton avenue had been burglarized and Street Commissioner Hawthorn's home and others on the same avenue had been disturbed by a dark lantern. The officers therefore concluded they would patrol the Second ward first and see for themselves what was going on. It was after one o'clock this morning when the two guardians, armed with heavy canes and revolvers found themselves up at the east end of Prospect avenue. Everything was still. Presently the chief whispered "There, see that dark lantern." The two officers strained their eyes in breathless silence as they watched the bull's eye cross and recross the street, as if dodging around a house some distance away from the officers.

"Now we will bag that fellow," whispered Hogan. The officers deployed in regular skirmishing order, canes and revolvers in hand, advancing in double-quick order. They reached the first corner and saw the bull's eye was approaching, so they halted in the shadow of a gas lamp. The man with the dark lantern was coming rapidly, and the officers cocked their revolvers and held their canes with a firm grip. It was all over in a moment. The man with the bull's eye lantern came within the rays of the gas jet, when the officers discovered that it was, carried by the Second ward lamplighter who travels on a bicycle.

"Are you the chap that frightened Mrs. Hawthorn last night?" inquired Chief Acheson. "I don't know that I did. I passed by Mr. Hawthorn's house about 2 o'clock that night, and my bull's eye might have reflected in their house. You see I pass around two sides of that house, usually taking the sidewalk in wet times, and you can see how easy it would be for the light to enter with blinds open."

Acheson and Hogan lit a fresh cigar and declared the hunt off, both returning to their homes at 2:30 this morning.

BARLEY DROPPING IN PRICE.

Malting Season Is Nearly Over—Receipts of Grain Light

Receipts of grain were again light during the past week, and the market ruled quiet with slight decline on some kinds. Wheat is quotable at 50 to 55 cents with only an occasional load offered. Barley is in good demand at 47 to 50 cents, a decline of 1 to 2 cents on last quotations. The malting season is nearly over consequently the tendency is to lower prices. Oats are off 1 cent with sales at 30 to 31 cents. Hogs are $4.35 to $4.65 per hundred.

STATE MONEY IS DEMANDED.

While the danger of an eruption of the bank currency of the ante-war period is not very great there can be no doubt that a serious attempt will be made to establish state banks of issue of some kind. Bills for this purpose have been introduced in the house by the conservative element of the democracy which would provide some safe-guards, which may command the support of many republicans and which may be favored by the president. There is no necessity, of course, for an increase in the volume of the circulating medium. Indeed, it is already far greater than the needs of business, as is shown by the immense hoards of idle cash in New York and other financial centers, but the sound-money faction of the democracy apparently thinks it necessary to make some concession to the other and dominant element of their party. The wise thing for congress to do is to postpone action on this bank currency question for a year or two and give its entire attention to the really pressing issues. But such considerations as wisdom and necessity do not always have much influence in dictating its course.

It might be well in some respects if King George III still ruled this country. He was no friend to cigarette and knew his business when it came to looking after young men. An English paper brings us an account of the imprisonment of three youths for fourteen days apiece because they "neglected their health and threw themselves upon the town for treatment." The action was brought under one of King George's statutes which had been out of use for years.

There is not much use in arresting Coxeyites unless some of them are punished. The "generals" and "privates" who break the law should receive the penalty which the law decrees just like other bums and cranks.

The republicans are well organized and energetically active everywhere, and the signs are all propitious for such a series of victories for their party as has not been known for twenty years.

The revival of another presidential boom is indicated by the fact that the Indiana republican convention neglected to congratulate Read upon his recent notable triumph, and also forgot to mention McKinley.

There has never before been a time when so many democratic congressmen were impressed with the necessity of looking after their private affairs instead of seeking re-nominations.

And only to think that less than two short years ago our democratic friends were writing the obituary of the republican party!

Important Ruling Of the Supreme Court as to Domestic Commerce.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—In the Supreme court yesterday in the case of J. W. Brownan, plaintiff in error, vs. The City of Titusville, in error to the Supreme court of Pennsylvania, the court decided that "no state can levy a tax on inter-state commerce in any form, whether by duties laid on transportation of the subjects of that commerce or on the receipts derived from that transportation, or on the occupation of carrying it on."

Precautions at the Capitol.
WASHINGTON, May 1.—Visible evidences of preparation for the Coxeyites were to be seen about the halls and corridors of congress yesterday. A double force of officers was on duty. Two men were in the main rotunda. Each of the main doors and the basement entrances had an officer. The lobbies immediately surrounding the senate and house were patrolled by the officers and the halls giving ingress to the congressional galleries were also patrolled.

Mrs. Cleveland's Friend.
Mrs. Cleveland's very intimate friend, Miss Helen R. Benedict, shares with Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., the distinction of being one of the best two whips of the fair sex in America. Miss Benedict is one of New York society's petted and distinguished belles. President Cleveland's intimacy with Miss Benedict's father, E. C. Benedict, a Wall street millionaire, has often been brought to the attention of the public. It will be remembered that it was aboard Mr. Benedict's yacht, the Oneida, that the alleged surgical operation on the president's mouth was performed last summer. Miss Benedict is now abroad.

THE CITY IS RESPONSIBLE.
Railroad Officials So Notify Des Moines Council.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 1.—At a special meeting of the city council last evening a notice was presented by the division superintendent of the Chicago Great Western railroad notifying the city that the railroad would hold it responsible for any damage done to its property by the Kelly army. The city solicitor gave an opinion that the city would be required to protect the railroad property when it was shown it was endangered. The council voted to have a copy of the notice served on the county to establish its liability. The notice which was served by the Chicago & Great Western railway on the city council was also served on Gov. Jackson, on the United States marshal, and the county and city authorities. Supt. Egan said that the company feared an attempt would be made to capture one of its trains, and proposed to make certain that they would be protected. He stated also that the road would not carry the army except at regular passenger rates and that they would not run any special trains.

The council unanimously adopted a resolution instructing the mayor to inform Gen. Kelly that it was the desire of the city government that he move his army on at once.

The air has been full of rumors of a threatened tie-up on the Rock Island unless that road concluded to aid in getting the army out of Des Moines. The rumors are alternately denied and confirmed, and beyond the fact that all employees of the railroad are in full sympathy with the army, nothing definite can be learned. It is asserted that if force is used to compel the Kelly crowd to move on every wheel on the Rock Island will be stopped. The army is still in camp at the old saw works and up to the present moment no indications of a speedy departure can be discovered. Gen. Kelly said the people of Des Moines were treating his men liberally and they had made no arrangements as yet for leaving. Kelly has been invited to address the students of Drake university to-day.

Iron Mountain Miners in Distress.
LANSING, Mich., May 1.—A committee of citizens of Iron Mountain, headed by Mayor Crowell, waited on Gov. Rich and laid before him the condition of the destitute miners of that place. The governor is opposed to calling an extra session of the legislature and at his suggestion the delegation went to Detroit to consult with the citizens' relief committee, appointed by him last winter, and with whom he had agreed not to call an extra legislative session until such committee had declared its inability to meet all demands.

TEN MEN FROM HERE JOINED GEN. COXEY.

Ten recruits to the Coxeys army went from this city. They were all old soldiers and left at the end of the G. A. R. encampment. Fritz Janssen of Milwaukee was one of the party but has returned home. Mr. Janssen was a member of the Twenty-fourth Wisconsin regiment, which was first commanded by Colonel Larrabee and afterwards by Colonel Arthur McArthur. He told a reporter his story as follows:

"When the encampment at Janesville was over a party of members of the Grand Army—about a dozen in all—took the train to Chicago to join the Coxeys contingent. There were in the party, besides myself, Johnny Abert and Yankee Smith, members of the Robert Chivas post, and Adolph Goetzman, a member of the William Steinmeyer post, and six others. We found when we reached Chicago that the army had left and marched towards South Bend, Ind., and so we went there to join them. We found them there. They had slept in a coal shed and under the roof of heaven. It was a singular collection of men. Many of them had money in their pockets. There were in the division in which we enlisted 500 men, I should estimate, and there was another division ahead of that division. Recruit from Here Got An Office.

"It was a very orderly gathering, however. They would not steal a train or steal anything from the farmers along the route. All the men were unarmed but they meant business. I could not tell whether there were many Grand Army men in the party, as they straggled along the road as our troops did in the days of the war. John Abert was appointed lieutenant of the division in which I was."

"The farmers turned out to help the army along, and brought their teams with them. As they left their homes their wives wanted to know when they would be back, and received evasive answers. Some of the farmers had two bags of oats in their wagons, and that meant they were to be gone two days. There were fully three hundred teams conveying that division along the Indiana roads. The farmers wanted to get them so far on their way that they could not get back, and so get rid of them.

"The reason I came back was the roads were too muddy. As long as the soil was sandy we got along all right, but as soon as we struck the clay beds of Indiana the pedestrians sank in up to their knees, and it was too hard. I went with them for ten miles, and when we came to a station on the railroad I came back to Chicago and Milwaukee. John Abert wanted me to stay with him, but I told him if he wanted to go to Washington we should pay our fares and go that way. I told him there was nothing in it to walk to Washington. I believe he would have come back with me if he had not been appointed an officer. So I left him and the others going across Indiana. If they get to Cleveland they will get plenty of recruits."

Mr. Jansen is of the opinion that the Coxeys movement is more serious than the public generally believes, judging from the class of men that have joined the Chicago contingent.

F. M. MARZLUFF HAD TO HUSTLE.

No Argument For Democracy in the Case of This Shoe Factory.

Janesville democrats get a good deal of satisfaction out of the fact that F. M. Marzluff's factory hasn't shut down, despite free trade times.

"I am just as tickled about it as anybody," said Mr. Marzluff, "but it doesn't make me a free trader by a good deal. The only thing that has kept the factory going this year has been everlasting hustling. We never had to work as hard for trade before. Had this been an ordinary year the expense and effort we put into our road-work would have doubled our trade. Instead of doubling we will be in great luck if we play even. No more democratic administrations in mine."

Agnes Herndon Here Thursday.

The announcement that charming Agnes Herndon, in her great creation "La Belle Marie," will be here Thursday will be hailed with delight by our theater-going public. "La Belle Marie" has won for the fair actress fame and fortune, and today there are few attractions before the public that are receiving as liberal patronage and proving as large financial successes. The story is admirably worked out, and the story is full of wit, fun and strong climaxes, without ever descending to impossible situations and without a touch of coarseness.

A Fine Toned Instrument

A great many complimentary remarks have been passed by people who were in attendance at the G. A. R. entertainment last Thursday night, about the fine toned piano used. The piano was one of the best ever in a room. It filled the hall admirably and the richness of tone could not but be noticed. The instrument was the Colby make and is for sale only by D. W. Kolbe, the west side jeweler.

SUPPER for the guests at the railroad men's party tonight will be served at the opera house restaurant. A free bus will run from the Armory.

FRED ROUSH, formerly in the employ of G. A. Shurtleff, bade good bye to his many Janesville friends yesterday, and started for his new home in Tallahassee, Alabama.

Don't let it be said that you did not buy tickets for the hospital benefit opera, Pirates of Penzance. It is a beautiful opera and will be given in first class style.

J. D. HOLMES, the tailor man, will have a display of the handsomest shirts ever seen in Janesville on display Saturday. He went to Chicago to-day to get them.

THERE will be a free bus to the opera house restaurant from the armory tonight. Supper will be served in McDonald's best style, and preparations have been made so that a crowd can be accommodated.

AFTER May 1st, when you want a first-class sewing machine, go to Corn Exchange, in the Armory block. There you will find the two leaders, the Singer and the Domestic, and Peterson always makes the prices right.

The third lecture of the E. L. lecture course will be delivered tonight by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Cole. Subject, "Matrimony." Everybody is cordially invited, especially old bachelors. Admission 20 cents, doors open 7:30.

THEY need a cow at the Oak Lawn hospital and the ladies hope to be able to buy one with the proceeds of the cake sale, to be held in the store formerly occupied by Hall & Hanson, opposite the post office, next Saturday. All ladies who wish to contribute cakes, pies, doughnuts or cookies to the good cause, will please leave them at the store by 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Every little helps and all contributions will be thankfully received.

OUR ladies 7-button shoes are made from the finest Paris kid stock, and are strictly hand-turned. No dealer in Janesville or elsewhere is selling a shoe like ours for less price than we quote on ours. No one knows this better than those who advertise an inferior shoe, made in imitation of our shoe at "one third" less than our price. They should cost one-third less, and pay a handsome profit at the price advertised. We never have endeavored to mislead the people by misrepresentation, believing that such methods cannot bring to any merchant a lasting benefit. We refer any doubting one to Marzluff & Co., who will verify our statement in reference to 7-button shoes. Becker & Woodruff, on the bridge.

ROBERTS GETS $100 FOR HIS INJURIES.

DOCTOR'S FALL NOT HEAVILY RECOMPENSED.

Former Evansville Man Fares Slimly in the Circuit Court—John T. Manning Sues Charles T. Wilcox For Damages to His Business—Game of Freeze Out.

Dr. W. P. Roberts, formerly of Evansville, now of Chicago, gets a judgment of one hundred dollars against the village of Evansville. One year ago last winter Dr. Roberts fell on an icy sidewalk in that village, sustaining injuries to his spine, and action was brought to recover personal damages. The case was on trial for three days, being given to the jury at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The verdict was announced at the opening of court this morning.

Quaker Wedding at Evansville.

Dr. Roberts is a Quaker and is a man possessing many peculiarities. Some years ago there was quite a sensation in Evansville over the wedding of the doctor, which was solemnized in a public hall according to Quaker rites and usages. This attracted considerable attention, and newspaper men from Chicago and Milwaukee were in attendance. Dr. Roberts is now secretary of the National Health Association, it being a society to raise funds to assist consumptives who wish to go to New Mexico and are not able to pay.

Game of Freeze-Out Alleged

The court is occupied hearing testimony in the case of John P. Manning against Charles T. Wilcox. Manning was a tenant of Wilcox, occupying one of the stores in the old Ogden block, and claims that he was forced out by Wilcox greatly to the injury of his business, he being engaged in the cigar and tobacco trade. The case will not conclude before tomorrow.

Gang of Men at Work on the Cemetery Grounds

A force of five men are now at work beautifying the drives and grounds in Oak Hill cemetery, grading and sodding the property. The trustees held their regular monthly meeting this morning, and decided to do considerable work in this line this spring. They also desire to lead owners to a helping hand by improving their private lots. This work can now be done by the regular force employed at reasonable expense. Sexton Scott submitted his report giving the items for March and April as follows:

March 1—Fred Schulteheim, Janesville, aged 20 days.
March 6—Winslow H. Gilkey, Janesville, aged 4 months.
March 8—Nellie May Legge, Janesville, aged 1 year.
March 22—Mrs. Anna Knudson, Janesville, aged 81 years.
March 21—Richard P. Hawley, Janesville, aged 4 months.
March 22—Dorothy Clark, Nebraska, aged 22 years.
March 25—Charles H. Chase, town of Janesville, aged 44 years.
April 6—Gerta E. Marsden, Janesville, aged 1 year.
April 11—Mrs. Emily K. Graham, Milwaukee, aged 88 years.
April 12—Mrs. Sarah Godden, Janesville, aged 27 years.
April 16—August Lidke, Janesville, aged 63 years.
April 17—Rubin A. Smith, Janesville, aged 4 years.
April 20—Mrs. Anna Funk, Janesville, aged 57 years.

Mrs. Mary Quinn.

Mrs. Mary Quinn, aged seventy years, died at her home 54 Lincoln street at 12:40 o'clock this morning. She had resided in Rock county for forty-seven years. She leaves six daughters to mourn her death, they being Mother M. Govevieve, a sister of Mercy at Independence, Iowa; Mrs. Edward Lay of Center; Mrs. Michael Hayes, Mrs. John Connors, Misses Annie and Jennie Quinn of this city. Her husband died three years ago.

Buggy Smashed In a Runaway.

A horse belonging to Morris Crall and driven by Jesse McAffrey took a lively run on North Jackson, Wall and River streets this morning, smashing the buggy on Wall street. The horse thus freeing itself, quickened its pace down River street until it reached Christman's grocery store, where it collided with a light phaeton, doing considerable damage to the vehicle.

Called To See a Sick Brother.

Dr. Thomas Taggart, of Cincinnati was in the city a few hours last evening en route to Evansville, where he had been summoned to see a sick brother. While he was in the city he visited his old friend, W. P. Williams, clerk of the municipal court, the two men having been schoolmates in their boyhood days.

Light Infantry in Good Shape.

The semi-annual muster of the Light Infantry took place at the Armory last evening. Forty-five members out of fifty-nine on the company's roll were present and in line, which was considered a first-class showing. The annual inspection will probably take place about week after next.

Switchman Hillier in Bad Shape

Bible Societies Not Relinquished.

Hitherto the English and American bible societies have enjoyed the privilege of circulating magazines and tracts and of maintaining traveling agents in Russia. But recently the various establishments at Kief and other large cities in the dominions of the czar have been closed by the police, the doors locked and sealed, and the employees ejected. Moreover, steps are now being taken to put a stop to the facilities which the societies have hitherto enjoyed in the exercise of their labors and in the extension of the sphere of their operations.

Trying to Escape.

"There!" said the young wife proudly, as she deposited the hot plate carefully on the table. "That's the first mince pie that I ever made without any help, alone myself."
"So it is!" exclaimed her husband enthusiastically, looking it over critically meanwhile. "And as long as it is the very first, my dear, don't you think that, instead of cutting it, it would be nice to keep it for a souvenir? How would it do to have it framed?"

The Era of Muscle.

This is an athletic age. Everybody wants to be strong. The craze for it has well reached that stage—reaches both sexes and even children. The "muscle" phase of this fad in young America is by no means a monthly growing. But it is one thing to be endowed with vigor and another to be endowed with muscle. Super muscularity is often induced by physical effort, but it is less and controlled to a large extent. The vigor which means a regular and efficient discharge of the physical functions, is the first medium at which all may safely aim, without causing rupture or breaking blood vessels. Hockett's Spermatic Bitters is conducive to a gain in vigor of this sort since it stimulates and assists digestion, promotes regular bilious secretion and keeps the bowels in order. Sleep, that grand recuperator of nervous vigor, is encouraged by it and it remedies muscular, rheumatic and kidney troubles.

MOVED THE INSANE TO NEW QUARTERS.

LONG LINE OF WAGONS LADEN WITH LUNATICS.

Seven Carryalls and Many Farm Wagons Full of the Johnstown Asylum Inmates Roll Away From the Poor Farm in a Strange Possession—Their New Home.

Seven carryalls and four farm wagons full of the insane inmates of Johnstown asylum moved in a fantastic procession this morning. Slowly they rolled through mud up to the hubs, country folk lining the roads and staring at the vacant-faced passengers. On each wagon was two or three guards but guards were little needed. There was no disturbance and the transfer of patients from Johnstown to the new asylum was effected without trouble.

As a precaution the wagons were held until all had been loaded, and then started across the country together. The "trusties" were put on top of the freight wagons, while the more unruly patients were assigned to carryalls.

By noon the train had been completed. The pauper, who moved yesterday.

NO PIANO IS FINER THAN THE GAZETTE'S

THOUGHTOUT THE COUNTRY.

Everybody Who Has Examined the Instrument at S. C. Burnham & Co's Says the Things Said in Its Favor Were Justified—Conditions of the Contest.

Nothing but praise is heard for The Gazette piano. The Shaw instruments rank in the markets of the country just as Chickering's, Steinways and Knabes, the four occupying first place. Everybody who has seen the Gazette piano is enthusiastic in its praise. It has a pure ringing tone, and its action is very fine. These qualities are what would be expected of a Shaw piano and The Gazette made no mistake in choosing that instrument.

Friends of contestants show a lively interest in the success of their favorites and votes are coming in rapidly. New subscribers should be reported as fast as secured, but coupons should be tied in bundles of one hundred each and kept until the day the competition closes. Votes have been cast up to date, for the following candidates:

Baker, Beatie
Chenard, Alice M.
Edwards, Rose B.
Flick, May
Foster, Lahlie
Gifford, Alice V.
Gibbs, Maria J.
Holt, Ellen
Hugett, Miss Olive.
Hayward, Minnie
Kenyon, Cora
Kastner, Alice
Loucks, Fraue
McNeil, Anna
Peters, Nellie
Randall, Carrie M.
Wright, Ada V.

Names of other candidates will be added as fast as votes are received. Only bona fide candidates will be allowed. The rule that nobody is permitted to enter merely to represent an organized society will be strictly enforced.

From now until the contest closes a coupon will be printed in each issue of the Gazette.

1. Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the above ballot.

2. Cut the ballot out (trimming on the dotted lines.) Write in the name of your candidate and enclose same in an envelope addressed to Ballot Editor, Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

3. Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.

4. The lady who receives the largest number of votes will receive as good and beautiful a piano as the Shaw Piano Company can make.

5. The contest will close June 30, 1894. Piano will be delivered as soon as the counting of votes is completed.

6. Any person who will bring The Gazette one new subscriber paid in advance will be entitled to the following number of ballots:

New subscriber paid in advance one month, 100 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance two months, 250 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance six months, 500 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance one year, 1,000 votes.

Each new subscriber who pays in advance and casts the number of votes specified is also entitled, of course, to cut coupons from the paper from day to day and vote in the regular manner.

No person will be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

We will be square with you, you must be square with us. No person will be allowed to stop his paper on Monday and start it again Tuesday and claim the premium offered.

The polls will close at 9:00 p. m., June 30, but votes handed in before this will be duly credited. The contest will be conducted strictly "on the square." No partiality or unfair advantage will be taken or allowed in any case.

MEMORIES OF FORMER LIFE.

A Theosophist Cites a Case of Reincarnation in the Same Family.

"I have a number of friends who have shadowy recollections of a previous existence upon this earth," said a theosophist to the Pittsburg Dispatch, supporting the doctrine of reincarnation. "You doubtless have also had experiences when an indefinable, vague remembrance of something or somebody which puzzled you and made you say, 'I'm sure I've seen that before.' Yet you may know pretty positively that, as far as this present existence is concerned, it was impossible for you to have received even an idea of the place or person. I have often met people with whom I became intimate at first sight. It seems, as I have often told them, that I had known them for years. It was only the other evening I met a lady from San Francisco whose face had been in my mind for years. As soon as we met there seemed to be something that drew us together. We were as old friends. The most remarkable instance I ever heard is that of the daughter of Isaac Fulton. Twelve years ago he resided in Effingham county, Ill. While there he buried a daughter named Maria, who was taken away just as she was budding into womanhood. About a year later he removed to Dakota, where he still resides. About three years after his daughter's death he was blessed with another little girl, who was christened Nellie. It being the favorite name of his wife. When the little one became old enough to talk she persisted in calling herself Maria. She became quite angry when told her name was Nellie. She said the name belonged to her, as her parents used to call her Maria. A matter of business took Mr. Fulton back to Effingham county and for company he took Nellie along. The father was surprised at the intuitive knowledge the girl had of the place. She not only recognized the old home, but many people she had never seen, whom the first daughter had been acquainted with. About a mile from the home was a school house where Maria had gone to school. Little Nellie had never seen the place, yet she gave an accurate description of it to her father and expressed a strong desire to visit it. Accordingly her father took her out to the school house. As soon as she was inside she marched straight up to the desk her sister had occupied and said: 'This is mine.' In telling the story Mr. Fulton said that it seemed as if the dead had come back from the grave; but her mother would not have it so. She says, if that is true, she had but one child, and God gave her two.

The Rothschilds' Corner on News.
The world has never quite understood how the Rothschilds got an "exclusive" on the result of the battle of Waterloo, and were thus able to bank on it ten hours before any other human being in London found it out. When Napoleon escaped from Elba the Rothschilds also managed to score an "exclusive," which they used most profitably on the stock exchange hours before even the government officials had the slightest inkling of the weighty news. And now again history repeats itself with this family, for in spite of all the newspaper enterprise in London, the Rothschilds got the first dispatch from Rio Janeiro announcing Admiral Benham's interference, and after they had extracted all the financial value out of it they gave it to the London papers. The famous Rothschilds family have founded all their wealth on "exclusives," always managing to be up a little earlier in the morning than the rest of the world upon occasions where fortunes are at stake. It is an historic instance of wonderful enterprise, united with even more wonderful luck.

HONESTY

IN THE CLOTHING BUSINESS IS NOT RARE WHEN YOU COME TO A FIRST-CLASS HOUSE.

We do not sell cheap clothing, in fact we don't want it. We cannot compete in price with the "ready made" dealer who advertises $20 suits for such ridiculously low prices, because it is almost an impossibility to give the buyer any value for his money.

The Clothing Sold by

ZIEGLER

Because every garment is made by a first-class merchant tailor, a man who knows how to build good clothing and the buyer who pursues the policy of buying "ready-made" clothing because it is cheap pays more in the end than he who buys the best. The kind of clothing we sell you is the kind that has all the merits of style, finish and quality.

We sell the best made for less than you can buy the poorest at any other clothing house in Janesville. You no doubt wondered how we can do this. We will tell you. We are directly connected with the large concern of Browning, King & Co., the largest clothiers in the world. They have stores in all the large cities of the United States. They buy direct from the cloth and last year manufactured and sold $9,000,000 worth of clothing. Each house selects their own designs and patterns, and gets advantage of Browning, King & Co.'s low prices. Don't you think kind reader that a concern that handles $9,000,000 worth of clothing in a year can get better prices than one that handles $25,000 or $30,000? We pay the same prices as Browning, King & Co. We guarantee you that we buy our clothing from 15 to 25 per cent less than any clothier in Janesville. We sell you the best for the least money.

COXEY AND BROWNE
BY WASHINGTON POLICE.

No Measure in Dealing With the Procession of Unemployed at the Capitol—General Randall Leaves Chicago With 450 Men, Escorted By Police.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Coxey's army marched to the capitol today—a ragged, seedy, draggled lot. Very different from the broken file of four hundred tramps looked from the fifty thousand the Massillon leader had promised. Very different the reception from what the Ohio horse-trader had pic-

cerning meetings and processions in the capitol grounds, and in reply to his objections that the law was unconstitutional they told him that they were here to execute the law and not to construe it.

Chief of Police O'Mara of Pittsburgh is in consultation with Major Moore. A score of out-of-town detectives from principal cities are in Washington.

Twenty mounted policemen patrol the country in which the Coxey camp is located. They are in command of a sergeant, and will take into custody any one violating any regulations of the district.

COAL MEN AND REND
DON'T GO TOGETHER

OPERATORS REPUDIATE OFFERS FOR A COMPROMISE.

Indiana and Illinois Coal Men Will Have Nothing to Do With an Interstate Agreement Regulating Prices—Toluca Mines Shut Down Tight—Trouble Feared in Ashland

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 1.—The manifesto of Col. W. P. Rend, the Chicago coal operator, for a settlement of the miners' strike was issued to the other operators last night. They would not agree to a conference. They seem determined to win the fight. Operators in Indiana and Illinois declared they would have nothing to do with an interstate agreement fixing the price of labor.

The coal supply through Pennsylvania is growing smaller. The Sligo bar iron mill has closed down on account of no fuel. The coal supply in any of the mills can not last over two weeks, and gas is too scarce to allow its general use. On the Allegheny Valley railway old railroad ties are being cut up into billets to allow their being burned in the locomotives.

The strikers at Washington Run had a fight with the deputy sheriffs last night. One of them was badly used up. When he got back to the strikers' camp and reported what happened his companions started with sticks of dynamite for the building where the deputies are lodged. They intended to wreck it with the dynamite, but the leaders succeeded in getting the explosives away from them.

TOLUCA, Ohio, May 1.—General Manager Ferris of the Ohio Central has issued an order to cut the pay of all salaried men 33 1/2 per cent, beginning May 1. Mr. Ferris says it is a temporary reduction, rendered necessary by the coal strike, as half the road's business is coal traffic. It is understood a cut will soon be made on the Hocking Valley.

John McBride Has His Say.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—John McBride, yesterday, after reading the statement of Col. Rend's son to the effect that if the coal operators did not soon agree among themselves and send their men to work he would start up his mines, said: "Before Col. Rend can set his men to work at the advance in wages which is asked he must first secure the consent of the men. There are hundreds of operators ready and willing to begin work and to pay the price for mining which is asked by the miners' association if the men were willing to return to work. What they desire is fair treatment of the miners and fair treatment by all operators toward each other."

TOLUCA MINES CLOSED TIGHT.

Fear They Will Not Be Protected Said to Have Scared Workmen.

TOLUCA, Ill., May 1.—Toluca mines closed last evening. The miners held a meeting Saturday evening and decided to go to work, but Sunday they held another and decided to quit until all the mines resume. The colored miners have joined interests with the white miners. The mines of all Northern Illinois are now closed except two, one at Streator and one at La Salle, the Mattheisson & Higler Zinc company. The miners at Spring Valley voted to permit no company mines to work at all.

PANA, Ill., May 1.—Great apprehension is felt here on account of the report that the miners from the Springfield district are on their way to Pana to force out the miners at work there. Trouble is feared, for there is great opposition to the strike at this place.

ROCKFORD, Ill., May 1.—Many manufacturing concerns here will be compelled to shut down unless the exhausted supply of soft coal is speedily replenished by the strikers going to work.

LINCOLN, Ill., May 1.—The 200 miners in this city have quit work and will await the result of the general strike before resuming.

CENTRALIA, Ill., May 1.—The 400 miners employed in the two mines here will come out and join in the strike. Sandoval miners have voted against going out.

CARLYLE, Ill., May 1.—Five hundred miners struck between here and East St. Louis yesterday.

UNDER UNCLE SAM'S PROTECTION.

Wisconsin Central Will Put Upper Dockmen at Work.

ASHLAND, Wis., May 1.—The Wisconsin Central proposes to take a hand in the fight against the striking upper dockmen. It is proposed to commence on the dock to-day with men who will work for $1.35 days and $1.45 nights. The Wisconsin Central has Uncle Sam at its back and has published a manifesto stating the fact. United States Marshal Main says he will have twenty deputy marshals with him at the dock.

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 1.—The Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic has agreed to contract to trim vessels at 1/2 cents a ton and leave the employment of men and the choice of foremen to the executive committee. This ends the strike.

OMAHA, Neb., May 1.—The three carpenters' and joiners' unions of Omaha have decided to ask May 1 that eight hours shall constitute a day's work. This is now a nine hour city. President Gascoigne says thirty days the union will demand 30 cents an hour.

GREEK EARTHQUAKE
TAKES 500 LIVES.

ANOTHER SHOCK SPREADS AWFUL DESOLATION.

Towns in Ruins and Hosts of People Dead—The Disaster a Repetition of That One Week Ago—Accident Costs Many Lives in Brahamov, Roumania.

ATHENS, May 1.—Another earthquake shook Greece this morning. From every hand reports are coming in of villages destroyed and cities in ruins. The disaster was preceded by tremblings of the earth that gave enough warning so many were prepared and fled to the open country, but the list of the dead will reach fully five hundred.

BRAMHOV, Roumania, May 1.—A terrible accident occurred here yesterday. While the pier was crowded with people in holiday attire, bound for Galitz, on the Danube, waiting for the steamer which was to convey them to that place, the pier gave way and threw about one hundred and twenty people into the water. Many of the excursionists are believed to have been drowned.

HOT DEBATE IN THE SENATE

Bitter Animosities Are Aroused in the Discussion of the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Senator Harris, who is in charge of the tariff bill, lost patience yesterday at the way in which progress was impeded by Senator Hale in the morning hour. As on several preceding days Mr. Hale objected to giving way for special measures in the morning hour. Finally Mr. Harris abruptly moved that the senator proceed with the consideration of the tariff bill. This at once caused a sharp discussion as to the manner in which the bill was to be debated and when the amendments were to be introduced. It lasted until Mr. Allen (pop., Neb.) threw "senatorial courtesy" to the winds and demanded the regular order. The tariff bill was then laid before the senate.

Mr. Aldrich renewed his comments on the Carlisle interview. In reply to a remark by Mr. Vest that Mr. Aldrich had been falsely informed concerning the proposed amendments to the tariff and if these statements were repeated it must be on his own responsibility. Mr. Aldrich accepted the challenge, with the statement on his lips that he was "informed and believed that amendments had been prepared to the bill since it had been reported to the senate, as he had previously stated." He asserted that amendments were in print and said it was his understanding that they were to be submitted to the senate shortly.

Mr. Mills (dem., Tex.) followed in a brief, sharp speech, in which he denied that the bill had been improperly prepared and reported.

Mr. Palmer remarked that it was not necessary or expected that a bill should be perfected in committee; as for himself he had not given a power of attorney to any one.

Senator Voorhees replied to the speech made by Senator Sherman last Saturday, and quoted a long paragraph from the Ohio senator's speech, in which he said that the finance committee had not had opportunity to consider the pending tariff bill in the usual way. He took especial exception to a sentence in Mr. Sherman's speech, reading, "this bill has never been considered by the finance committee." He asserted the tariff bill had been reported to the full finance committee March 8 and had not been reported by the committee to the senate until March 20.

Senator Sherman, in reply, said the bill was never read in detail to permit changes. If it had been and votes had been taken a more satisfactory measure might have been presented. Mr. Sherman repeated that there was no opportunity for consideration until the democratic majority had agreed upon changes.

After Mr. Harris Mr. Voorhees insisted that the record showed the bill had been considered in every detail from end to end and that the minority had ample opportunity to offer amendments. He called particular attention to Mr. Aldrich's motion made in committee to strike out the income tax feature. "I desire to say right here," said he, commenting on this motion, "no matter what rumors may be floating in the air, that the income tax will stay in this bill."

A few minutes afterward an incident occurred which created a profound sensation. Senator Turpie of Indiana, in a most bitter and scathing speech, denounced Senator Aldrich for his attack on the action of the committee. The speech certainly strained senatorial courtesy to the utmost limit, and created intense excitement in the chamber. Mr. Aldrich answered quietly and briefly, and the incident closed without another word. Mr. Quay resuming the prepared speech he began some weeks ago. A motion to go into executive session developed the absence of a quorum and at 4:30 the senate adjourned.

A Pension Letter Carriers.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Congressman Goldzier has introduced a bill in congress to provide for the relief of aged and disabled letter carriers by the establishment of a letter carrier's relief fund, which fund shall be composed of assessments levied upon the regular salary of all letter carriers engaged in the service. He proposes to withhold a sum equal to 1 per cent per annum of the amount of each letter carrier's salary to be devoted to this purpose. He provides that the fund so raised shall be applied to the relief of any carrier who, in the line of duty, shall be permanently injured or disabled, mentally or physically (if such disability is not the result of his own vicious habits), so as to incapacitate him for the performance of further duty in the service. If an employee of the first class in the mail service receives a permanent injury he is to receive $500 per annum; if of the second class $400; and if of the third class $300 per annum.

WANT TIME EXTENDED.

Chinese of San Francisco Concerned About the Registration Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 1.—The Chinese six companies held a big meeting here last night and again petitioned their minister at Washington to memorialize congress for a further extension of time for registration under the McCreary act. Unless their prayer is granted the registration books will close on Thursday next. The Chinese call attention to the fact that every incoming steamer brings many Chinese, whose sole purpose in returning is to register, and that on the steamer Oceanic, which arrived here Saturday, there over 500 Chinese who want to register, many of whom will not be permitted by the custom officers to come ashore before that time has expired.

Officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children have arrested Ching Say, a Clay street merchant, for damaging his daughter's feet to keep them from growing. The officers intend to make a test case, and, if successful, to prosecute other Chinese offenders.

BOMBS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Many Buildings Violently Shaken Up by an Explosion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 1.—An attempt was made with dynamite to wreck a restaurant on Mission street, near Twenty-eighth. Not much damage was done, however, though the report could be heard nearly a mile and buildings in the immediate vicinity were violently shaken. The restaurant is kept by two Slavonians, and it is believed by the police that the explosion was planned by a Slav, to whom they sold another restaurant, some time since.

Star Rubber Mortgage Is Valid.

TRENTON, N. J., May 1.—Vice-Chancellor Bird has rendered a decision in the famous Star Rubber company litigation, sustaining as valid mortgages for nearly $400,000, made by the directors of the company in favor of themselves and three Trenton banks, and recorded at midnight in January, 1891, to secure indorsements and cash advancements, three days before the concern went into the hands of a receiver.

Trying to Settle the Strike.

ST. PAUL, May 1.—"We expect to win this fight within forty-eight hours," was the way President Debs stated his views yesterday. He said he made the statement on the authority of the general manager of another road, who told him that Mr. Hill would grant the demanded advance to all remaining classes of employees within that time. Passenger trains were sent out as usual here, except that the Breckinridge train was held one hour to take on 100 deputies for that point. Everything is quiet in the yards here. A conference is now in session in Minneapolis between Mr. Debs and representatives of the commercial bodies of the two cities looking to settlement by arbitration.

Ready for Annual A. P. A. Meeting.

DES MOINES Iowa, May 1.—The supreme officers of the A. P. A. in the world, have arrived in Des Moines for the meeting to-morrow. Among the most important actions that will be taken by the council at its session in Des Moines will be the promulgation of a platform for declarations with reference to the indiscriminate foreign immigration.

Senator Stockbridge Dead.

CHICAGO, May 1.—United States Senator Francis B. Stockbridge of Michigan died at 7 o'clock last evening at the home of his nephew in this city. The end came unexpectedly. Although he had been ill for several weeks his condition was not thought critical and his death came as an unusually severe blow to his wife and friends.

Hoosier Elections To-Day.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—Elections will be held in all incorporated cities in Indiana to-day. The campaigns have been the most enthusiastic of any spring elections held in this state in years.

FROM A MOB'S ROPE
DANGLED WILSON.

MURDERER OF AN IOWA POLICEMAN LYNCHED.

Missouri Valley People Take From Jail the Burglar Who Killed Their City Marshal and String Him Up—Very Little Resistance Offered By the Sheriff.

MISSOURI VALLEY, Iowa, May 1.—Wilson, the burglar, who shot the city marshal here Saturday, was lynched early this morning. The mob seemed to have no particular organization but accomplished its purpose easily through its determination not to be balked. Officers were powerless, although not disposed to endanger any lives in defending the prisoner.

Crooked Juror Is Sent to Jail.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—Juror Alvis Armstrong, who offered to hang the jury in the bank cases for $5,000, was tried for contempt of court and sentenced by Judge Baker to eighteen months without labor in the penitentiary at Michigan City. Frank Stannard, the go-between, who, with Armstrong, was also under $4,000 bonds for a conspiracy to corrupt the Federal jury, was held to the grand jury and admitted on bail.

Threatens to Kill Breckinridge.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 1.—A communication postmarked New York has been received by the postmaster at Paris, Ky., asking him to warn the authorities that if Col. Breckinridge is allowed to speak there he will be shot down and the building blown up with dynamite. The letter writer says he is a Kentuckian.

TORE UP THE TRACKS.

Chicago Gets the Best of the Lake Shore Railroad Company.

CHICAGO, May 1.—The bitter contest between the city and the Lake Shore railroad came to a violent climax in the drawing of spikes, the displacement of rails and ties and the throwing of dirt by a band of 200 laborers employed by the city and protected by nearly one hundred policemen from Hyde Park and Englewood.

If the railway company should resort to violent measures it will meet with a hot reception, as the police have their war paint on and are under command of Inspector Hunt and Captain Aldrich. Every move on the part of the city has been personally directed by Mayor Hopkins, who declares that he is in the fight to save and that the railroad will pay dearly for the violated faith with the city officers.

HATTIE BLAINE WEDS.

Becomes Mrs. Truxton Beale at Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Very quietly and in the presence of their intimate personal friends, Truxton Beale, ex-minister to Persia, and Harriet Blaine, daughter of the late Secretary Blaine, were married at the Blaine family residence on Lafayette square at 1 o'clock yesterday. The Rev. Dr. Hamlin, pastor of the Presbyterian church of the Covenant, performed the ceremony. Edward Woolston of New York was the best man and there were no bridesmaids. There was an entire absence of show or ceremony about the wedding.

Ball's Body Found in the Woods.

SHERBOGAN, Wis., May 1.—The body of Peter Ball, who disappeared from Plymouth seven weeks ago, has been found in the woods near Wausau by an Indian. He left his name written on a log, and besides giving business instructions to his wife in a letter stated that his death was caused by sickness and starvation.

A Battle With Icebergs.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 1.—After a twenty-one days' storm of unusual severity the Allan line steamship Corean, in charge of Capt. Main, has arrived at this port bearing marks of a long battle with icebergs and ice floes, from which the iron vessel barely escaped.

Paris Forbids Parades.

PARIS, May 1.—The police authorities express confidence that there will be no disorder in the city May day—to-day. They have announced that lectures, banquets, and the like will not be interfered with, but that mass-meetings and processions will not be permitted.

Forming Coxey Army Home Reserves.

DENVER, Colo., May 1.—Ten thousand men are said to be already enrolled in the Coxey army home reserves in Colorado. The force in Denver numbers 1,200. Gov. Waite cordially indorses the movement.

Painters on Strike.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Twenty-five hundred painters, or half the entire number belonging to the Painters' union in this city, struck work yesterday. This step was taken as a result of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators of America held Sunday.

Climbing Laramie's Alibi.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, May 1.—There was a continuation of testimony tending to establish an alibi in the Ramsay case yesterday. Witness Bentley was recalled and said that Witness Smith represented Ramsay as advising the strikers to do nothing that would get them into trouble.

General of the Army of the Commonwealth.

tured to his troops. Coxey and Browne dismounted at the foot of the capitol steps and started up on foot. There was an interruption by the police. The blue coats charged, scattered the army and arrested Coxey and Browne. Both men were locked up, there being no serious trouble. The action of the police was not taken without warning. Coxey knew the programme last night. "I shall certainly make an attempt to speak, as I have promised," remarked Coxey, "and should the police disband the army as threatened a ruse will be resorted to. Instructions have been given the men to separate if ordered to do so by the police and go one by one or by twos and threes to the appointed spot near the steps of the east front of the capitol building. There I propose to make my address. After the meeting shall be adjourned we will go to our new rendezvous at the south of the capitol, where arrangements have been perfected for pitching camp."

"Much of the curiosity concerning Coxey has died out. Although the army has been on exhibition all day the attendance has been smaller than it was at Cumberland. Things have been quiet all day in the camp at Brightwood. After their demonstra-

by police and will stop at Grand Crossing, just inside the limits tonight.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 30.—The Galvin army arrived here today in extremely good spirits.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—The Galvin army, numbering 300 men, headed by the Nineteenth Regiment band and cheered on all sides by thousands of people who had been attracted by the display, at 8 o'clock last night marched from Trades Assembly hall to the Union depot, where they took a passenger train for Benwood, W. Va. The money for their transportation, amounting to $250, was raised by public subscription. About thirty new recruits, mostly Columbus men, and more than half of them trades-unionists, joined the army and will go with it to Washington. The donations of food were sufficient to enable the men to cook their dinners.

GEN. FRY SCENTS TROUBLE.

He Fears Uncle Sam's Soldiers May Try to Scatter the Armies.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—It is possible that within a few days the industrial movement throughout the United States will be proclaimed by Secretary of War Lamont as treason-

THE COXEY CRUSADE.

Carl Browne, adjutant-general of the Army of the Commonwealth and a notorious agitator, is represented in the first picture. The second illustrates the army on its march with the colored standard bearer in the van.

tion to-day the commonwealth soldiers will march to a vacant lot at Second and M streets, southwest, where they will pitch their tents, and the leaders announce that this will be the permanent camp of the army of peace until the good roads bills are passed by congress.

Answering the question, "You will attempt the capitol meeting in the face of official objection?" Coxey said: "Yes, and regardless of the law, mind only our constitutional rights." Asked as to whether he had received any encouragement from congress about the passage of his bills he replied: "I have not. Congress will not act until forced to."

Sergeant-at-arms of the Senate and Snow of the house were closeted with Coxey a quarter of an hour. These officials pointed

able and the different divisions be ordered to disband. Should the commanders of the various branches refuse to comply it is believed instructions will be sent to the United States army officers commanding the different departments to send out United States troops and arrest the leaders with their lieutenants and break up the camp. That such is the policy of the war department Gen. Fry of the Los Angeles army, in camp here, has little doubt. He believes that President Cleveland has determined to break up the Coxey armies before enough get to Washington to make trouble. The information came in the shape of an official communication from Major-General O. O. Howard, commanding the department of the east, desiring to be informed of the object of the march.

STRAPS AROUND LOCAL MAIL

String Costs the Government Too Much Money in the Long Run.

The post office department has put another economical scheme in practice in this city. When leaving the office the carriers have the mail for each street tied up in a package. Heretofore they have used string to tie up these packages, throwing the string away when the package was untied.
Barrels of string were thus consumed in a short time, and the government finds it quite an expense. The new idea is the substitution of leather straps for strings. These straps are not unlike an ordinary shawl strap, having a small buckle at one end.
They are furnished each carrier and he is held responsible for their keeping. The straps are buckled around the packages, and when removed are fastened to the carrier's pouch, and are thus preserved an indefinite time.
"The government expects to save considerable money in this new move," said one of the local carriers.
"I think it is a good move, the straps appear to be much handier than the string."

T. B. LEAHEY IN THE POSTOFFICE

He Succeeds Miss Nellie Bowles as Registry and Delivery Clerk.

Thomas B. Leahy to-day succeeded Miss Nellie G. Bowles as registry and delivery clerk in the Janesville postoffice, this being the first change in the clerical force since Postmaster
Wilson took charge of the office. Mr.
Leahy is well qualified for the position to which he has been appointed.
For many years he was employed in the freight office of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, and is an expert accountant.

MAGAZINES OF THE MONTH.

Demorest's

There are many attractive features in the May number of Demorest's magazine. Gen. Low Wallace, Gen.
James Grant Wilson, George W. Cable,
Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Prof. H. H.
Boyeson, and Gertrude Atherton give "Advice to Young Writers," every word of which, coming from such sources, is as valuable as gold, and the portrait of each is given with the advice. The paper on "Russian Home Industries" is superbly illustrated and eminently interesting. "The Transformation of the Ugly Club" is a unique article on modern facial surgery.

North American Review.

The North American Review for May opens with two timely articles on "The Way to Regulate Liquor Selling." The first by Governor Tillman, of South Carolina, is in the nature of a defence of his conduct during the recent liquor riots in that state, and is entitled "Our Whisky Rebellion."
The second, which deals with "Successful Public-House Reform," is by the Right Rev. Francis John Jane, Bishop of Chester, who is well known in England as one of the leading advocates of the Gothenburg system.

Harper's Magazine.

"Eighty years young," said Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes when asked his age on a now famous birthday. For forty-four years Harper's New Monthly Magazine has kept abreast of the best art and the latest knowledge. It is new every month. Besides its articles on general topics, the May number contains six complete short stories, a generous installment of Mr.
Dunmaur's novel, "Tribby," half a long story by James Lane Allen, and more pictures than the average illustrated book.

Scribner's.

Scribner's Magazine for May opens with an article of unusual importance, entitled "Some Episodes of Mountaineering," by Edwin Lord Weeks, describing some of his own stirring adventures, while mountain-climbing in the Alps with illustrations furnished by the same hand. The author and artist is equally skillful as a picturesque writer and an artist of rare ability, both in landscape and figure work.

Romance.

Eleven of the sixteen attractive stories which Romance presents in its May number are either written expressly for it or are original translations. Among these are the leading tale, a society story, in the fresh setting of Central Park in May, by Rhodes Macknight; and a group of three admirable specimens of the realistic style of fiction.

PLANS FOR THIS EVENING.

May Party, at the Armory.

"Pirates of Penzance," at the opera house.

MRS. CAMPBELL TAKEN SICK

She Was Almost Helpless When Taken
From the Cars at Lima and Passed Away Sunday—Doings of County People—Spring Work is Well Along.

LIMA, May 1.—Mrs. Campbell and daughter Maggie, mother and sister of Mrs. Nugent, arrived here from Ireland last Friday morning. Mrs. Campbell was taken from the cars sick with pneumonia, and died Sunday at the home of her daughter. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church Tuesday at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Bray. She was laid to rest in the Lima cemetery.
Ezra Saxe and wife left Monday morning for a few days' visit with friends in Watertown. Carrie Johnson spent part of last week with Whitewater friends. Mrs. McDonald, who has been sick for the past two months, is still under the doctor's care, and fears are entertained of her recovery. W. P. Anderson made a trip to Fort Atkinson last Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. George Charles, of Afton, Sundayed with Lima friends.
Mrs. Anderson has a sister from the northern part of the state visiting her.
Little Nettie Freeman was five years old last Wednesday, and her mother helped her celebrate the day by giving a party to her little playmates. Refreshments were served and all had a nice time.

WEEK'S NEWS FROM MILTON.

Mrs. W. P. Clarke a Member of the Wau-paca Board of Visitors.

MILTON, May 1.—James Brooks, of Hortonville, is visiting his sister, Mrs.
A. W. Crane. Mr. Brooks is an old soldier and as a result of his army life is obliged to get about in a wheelchair, his legs being useless. Dr. Borden is able to be out again after a brief but severe illness. Mrs. W. P.
Clarke has been appointed a member of the board of visitors to the Wau-paca Soldiers' Home by the state department officials of the W. R. C. Mrs.
John W. Vandewalker died Saturday night. Funeral arrangements not made at this writing. Ezra Davy is running the wagon repair shop on College street formerly occupied by Rood. Mrs. M. S. Baker, of Juneau, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F.
C. Monroe. William Davis and family, of Janesville, were the guests of Milton relatives Saturday.

Dr. A. B. Woodard, of Wellville, N.
Y., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
Ezra Crandall last week. Mrs. Pickett, of Chicago, is stopping with Dr.
Ella J. Crandall for a time. Mr. Monroe, of Cadott, visited his sister, Mrs.
H. W. Rood, last week. The members of Company K, Thirtieth Wisconsin, who were in Janesville Thursday, were dined by their old commander, Captain Pliny Norcross. The late rains and warm weather are making vegetation grow rapidly, and some farmers are planting corn despite the fact that the "oak leaves are not as big as a squirrel's ear." E. W. Farnham, of Wichita, Kan., spent Saturday and Sunday with his uncle, Rev. E. D.
Farnham. The gentleman was a student in Milton college many years ago. Major S. S. Rockwood of Portage will be a candidate for state superintendent before the republican convention and is the best man yet named for that office. Mrs. Will H.
Borden of St. Paul, is the guest of Dr. W. H. Borden. Mrs. Louis Wolf-ron, at the "six corners" presented her husband with a little son, being their first born.

Congregational Society Mark the Flight of Time—Robert Dole Injured.

SHOPIRE, May 1.—The anniversary celebration of the Congregational church last week, was well attended, and all enjoyed themselves, meeting old friends from whom they had been separated for years. On Saturday noon dinner was served in the chapel to all. The tables were spread with the best the ladies of the vicinity could prepare, and all know from past experience that we have some pretty good cooks. The decorations were of choice flowers. A photograph was taken of all present. All those interested in Decoration day exercises will meet at Fraternity hall, Wednesday evening, May 2d, at half-past seven o'clock sharp. By order of committee.
Robert Dole had the misfortune to dislocate his shoulder and while handling last week a coil, threw it out again. Mrs. Thomas Holmes and granddaughter, after spending the winter in Janesville have returned home. A good many from abroad visited this place last week to attend the celebration at the church. This town was well represented at the department encampment at Janesville last week. Charles Rice, having been appointed road commissioner for the north part of the town, will commence work as soon as the weather will permit. Rev. R. K. Manion delivered a very interesting sermon to a large audience at the Congregational church Sunday evening last.

Magnolia Farmers Sell at Ruling Figures—Early Crops Prosper.

MAGNOLIA, May.—Frank Clifford and Charles Emmons have sold their crops of tobacco at democratic prices. G.
Howard's house is improving in looks with a new coat of paint. Wren Worthing is doing the work. Henry Johannas has bought Mrs. Seger's place and taken possession. Hans Hanson is an early gardner. He has potatoes up and growing fast.

George Bahrs is drilling a well at the creamery. Mrs. Edith Whaley of Evansville has been visiting her parents here. Our school in District No.
3 commenced last Monday morning.
Miss Alice Clifford officiating as teacher. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Howard and little Zora spent Saturday and Sunday in Brooklyn, the guests of B.
Johnson and wife.

COOKSVILLE I. O. G. T. LECTURE.

Rev. W. Palmer Gives Interesting Discourse
—Mrs. Fisher Near Death.

COOKSVILLE, May 7.—Rev. Mr. Palmer the Dist. Lecturer of I. O. G. T. gave us a fine lecture Friday evening, but owing to the rain in the afternoon very few were out. He remained over Sunday and gave a temperance sermon Sunday evening which was very much enjoyed. Mrs. J. P. Van-Vleck was very happily surprised by her sister, Mrs. Grace Love, of Iowa, last Wednesday. She came to remain all summer. Charlie Miller lost the best horse he had with the distemper.
Mrs. Graves visited her daughters in Stoughton Friday and Saturday.
Walter Speer was in Janesville a part of last week a witness in Dr. Roberts' damage suit. Newkirk & Franklin went to Chicago and purchased their blacksmith's tools; they have everything new and are good workmen we hope they will do well here.
VanPatten & Newkirk have a new sign up on their meat market, and have painted the whole front of the building. Al Whaley has a new fence in front of his house. Mr. Forest has rented the Collins house and is fixing and cleaning it preparatory to moving in. His wife is in Chicago yet. It looks natural to see Isaac Porter around town. He was here the most of last week looking after his farm.
Mrs. Fisher, an old-time resident, who is eighty-eight years old, is gradually failing. She lives alone and cannot be prevailed upon to live with any of her friends of whom she has many.
Crops look very fine in this vicinity.

BURGLARS AROUND JOINTSTOWN.

The Town Line Visited by Many Midnight
—"Marauders."

NORTH JOINTSTOWN, May 1.—Burglars have been on the town line within the last few weeks. Several houses have been entered and clothing and provisions stolen. Mrs. George Roe and daughter Grace dined with their cousins Carrie and Allie Johnson last Sunday. Covenant meetings at the church next Saturday at 2 p. m. Mrs. A. E.
Cary had the misfortune to fall last week, while helping at the parsonage, and is laid aside farm work for the present. Mrs.
Will Bishop leads the A. C. F. meeting next Sunday evening. George Roe has recently purchased a new organ for his new daughters, Grace and Genie. Teenard Osborn, who resides in Marquette county, is visiting his brother, H. R. Osborn. Mr. Sturdevant has recently purchased a nice double carriage.

Notes From Porter.

PORTER, May 1.—A traveling photographer passed through here last week taking teacher and pupils pictures at the schools. Arbor day was observed in all of our schools with exercises and in beautifying the school yard. Some of the smartest farmers are planting corn, but a number think it is too early. Bernie Farrington wears a genial smile as he says, its a boy. Chris Ryan, of Evansville, was a caller on Friday. Miss Mamie Tracy is attending school in Janesville again this term. Miss Lolo Fessender is learning dressmaking at the shop of Mrs. McKinney in Evansville. Miss Maggie Devine, of Edgerton, is stay-

DARK LANTERN MAN CAUGHT AT 2 A. M.

NIGHT RAID.

Two Hours Patrolling on Milton and Prospect Avenues Results in the Capture of the Mysterious Person Who Disturbed the Hanthorn Home
Sunday night.

Chief Acheson and Patrolman Hogan had an exciting chase last night after the second ward dark lantern man, and they captured him. Determined if possible to rid the city of tough characters the two officers resolved last night to do some patrolling in the outskirts of the city. Mr. Graham's house on Milton avenue had been burglarized and Street Commissioner Hanthorn's home and others on the same avenue had been disturbed by a dark lantern. The officers therefore concluded they would patrol the Second ward first and see for themselves what was going on. It was after one o'clock this morning when the two guards, armed with heavy canes and revolvers found themselves up at the east end of Prospect avenue. Everything was still. Presently the chief whispered
"There, see that dark lantern." The two officers strained their eyes in breathless silence as they watched the bull's eye cross and recross the street, as if dodging around a house some distance away from the officers.

"Now we will bag that fellow," whispered Hogan. The officers developed in regular skirmishing order canes and revolvers in hand, advancing in double-quick order. They reached the first corner and saw the bull's eye was approaching, so they halted in the shadow of a gas lamp.
The man with the dark lantern was coming rapidly, and the officers cocked their revolvers and held their canes with a firm grip. It was all over in a moment. The man with the bull's eye lantern came within the rays of the gas jet, when the officers discovered that it was carried by the Second ward lamplighter who travels on a bicycle.

"Are you the chap that frightened Mrs. Hanthorn last night?" inquired Chief Acheson. "I don't know that I did. I passed by Mr. Hanthorn's house about 2 o'clock that night, and my bull's eye might have reflected in their house. You see I pass around two sides of that house, usually taking the sidewalk in wet times, and you can see how easy it would be for the light to enter with blinds open."

Acheson and Hogan lit a fresh cigar and declared the hunt off, both returning to their homes at 2:30 this morning.
